TARIFF ISSUE DEPENDS UPON NEW CHAIRMAN

Policy to Rest on Successor of Marvin, Retired Head of Commission

DENNIS ACTING LEADER

Change in Chairmanship Interpreted as Desire to Make Law "Flex"

BY DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright 1926 by The Post Pub. Co.
Washington—When the United States tariff commission met Friday,
Chairman Marvin, of Massachusetts, Republican, retired in favor of vice-chairman Alfred Dennis, of Maryland, Democrat, but at the White House it was stated that President Coolidge had until midnight Friday under the law
to designate a new chairman.

The incident is of national importance because on the appointment of a new chairman may depend the whole policy of the commission toward tariff changes. The commission is bipartisan—three Republicans and three Democrats—but the Republicans have had the aid of a Democratic member, Henry Glassie, of the District of Columbia, so that a majority of four to two they have made most of the decisions in recent months.

The chairman wields a good deal of power in saying what cases shall be considered and in expediting action on pending business. Two nominations have yet to be submitted to the senate as a sequel to recess appointments so that in effect a reorganization of the commission is in progress.

DENNIS PRESIDENT'S FRIEND
Mr. Dennis, who is acting chairman, is a Democrat, but also a close personal friend of Mr. Coolidge. He wrote for the Saturday Evening Post during the last presidential campaign a biographical sketch of Mr. Coolidge which was regarded as the best work of Mr. Coolidge's personality that had been presented up to that time.
Mr. Dennis was commercial attaché in Berlin and London for the Department of Commerce and was then made assistant to Secretary Hoover, so his experience along economic lines is in conformity with the work before the tariff commission.

If Mr. Coolidge permits Mr. Dennis to remain as chairman it will be the third governmental commission which by the rotating process has a Democrat in charge. Thus Mr. Nugent is at the head of the federal trade commission and Mr. Eastman is the new chairman of the interstate commerce commission. In the latter two cases, however, the commissions do not impose so much power in their chairmanships.

COOLIDGE FAVORS CHANGE

There are evidences that Mr. Coolidge would like to cure the tariff agitation by making the flexible provisions of the tariff law effective. Mr.
Dennis has recently taken issue with his colleagues on the ground that they never permitted a duty to be lowered and always advocated increases. The commission recently advocated an increase in the duty on cotton gloves
but President Coolidge refused to accept the recommendations. Under the law he regards the recommendations of the tariff commission as purely advisory. It is indicated that he does not want the commission to look at its task
in a one-sided way and that he really wants the opinions of economists
rather than politicians to govern.

The mere change in chairmanship taken by the commission as a sign of changing policy and as an index of the White House desire to make the flexible provisions of the tariff law really "flex," as one member has remarked.

Undoubtedly there will be a congressional investigation of the tariff commission. Mr. Coolidge knows this and realizes that some change might better be made now while the initiative is his than when the congressional committee by its disclosures forces
a change in personnel. It is possible that Mr. Coolidge will designate a Republican as chairman, naming a new man to one of the vacancies on the board.

CONDITION OF CARDINAL MERCIER IS UNCHANGED

Brussels—(AP)—The condition of Cardinal Mercier, primate of Belgium, showed little change Saturday morning although there was a tendency to further weakness.

The pulse and temperature of the patient was normal, but the action of the heart is causing anxiety. The queen Elizabeth visited the Cardinal Saturday morning and chatted with him for 20 minutes. The patient was very cheerful despite his weakness. The gastric disturbances have ceased and he partook of some broth and milk early Saturday.

ITALIAN PACT PASSES TO SENATE

EVERYONE INVITED TO ATTEND FOURTH ANNUAL ICE RACES

With more than 100 skaters entered in the races, a record breaking crowd of spectators is expected
at the fourth annual Appleton Post-Crescent Fox Five valley championship tournament at Jones park Sunday afternoon. The races start promptly at 1:30.

No admission will be charged,
and everyone is invited to attend.
The natural amphitheatre surrounding the park provides vantage places for thousands of spectators. Last year about 3,000 persons saw the races.

A complete program of the races is printed on the sports page of today's Post-Crescent. Readers are advised to clip this program and take it with them so that they can identify the racers.

No admission will be permitted on the ice until the races begin. Competent officials will conduct the contests and a squad of policemen will be on hand to regulate the crowds.

DRY ARMY IN NEW RESOLVE TO BURY RUM

Anti-Saloon League Leaders Jubilant on 6th Birthday of Prohibition

Chicago, Ill.—The beginning of seventh year of the prohibition Saturday found its advocates more determined than ever to make its enforcement a success. F. Scott McBride, general superintendent of the Anti Saloon league said churches throughout the land had been asked to revive the wartime practice of four minute talks, devoted to prohibition themes at services Sunday. Celebration of the sixth anniversary of prohibition had been set for Sunday, he said, to enable a review of its "astounding progress and unbelievable benefits."

During the year the league will pursue a threefold program—to make public sentiment, to sell public sentiment
in such places where it is not crystallized and to mobilize the dry forces.
"We have just begun to fight," he said. Reviewing the results of six years of prohibition ended Friday he cited fewer arrests, emptying prisons, lessening crime and judges catching up with their dockets. The cost to the tax payers is nothing, because fines equal the amount appropriated for prohibition he said.

RAPS NEWS PAPER

The wet newspaper, he considered is the greatest hindrance to enforcement and light wines are only the opening wedge to "bring back the old sherry."

The birthday of prohibition was greeted in Washington by a statement from Wayne B. Wheeler, the league's general counsel, declaring that the nation's health had improved, and that the saloon and "the pauperism and slums" which clustered around it were a thing of the past.

The only White House response to an inquiry whether President Coolidge cared to comment on prohibition
was that he had nothing to say.

ZIMMERMAN BATTLE WITH CIVIL SERVICE BOARD

Madison—(AP)—Secretary of State
Fred R. Zimmerman has asked Attorney general Herman L. Ekers whether the secretary of state as state auditor "has any discretion in the assignment of duties" of employees in his department. "It being understood that the new assignment of primary duties does not constitute a promotion or increase in salary. The question arose through the recent resignation of C.
A. Sakrisson as auditor and chief accountant. Otto Brandt first assistant accountant, was promoted to fill the vacancy and all assistant bookkeepers were automatically advanced one grade.

It was found, Mr. Zimmerman said, that by transferring a senior typist to the books the work could be performed without additional help. No promotion or increase in salary was involved. A. E.
Garay, Secretary of the civil service commission refuses to approve the rearrangement "and insists that I must employ an assistant bookkeeper to be certified by him or the commission," Zimmermann said.

HOUSE GIVES BILL O. K. BY BIG MAJORITY

War Debt Settlement Provides for Payment to U.
S. Within 62 Years

BULLETIN
Washington—(AP)—The Belgian war debt settlement was approved Saturday by the house.

By a vote of 314 to 24, it passed and sent to the senate a resolution to authorize acceptance of the terms as recommended by the American debt commission.

Washington—(AP)—Having approved
by a vote of 357 to 133 the Italian war debt settlement, the house turned Saturday to five other debt arrangements with no expectation of developing similar opposition to them.

Attacked mainly by Democrats
during four days of debate, the Italian pact now goes to the Senate
where a resolution of acceptance already has been offered. The agreement, described by its opponents as amounting to virtual cancellation of the debt, binds Italy to pay the country $2,407,000 in exchange for the $1,545,000 originally borrowed, the payments extending over 62 years.

In the voting 113 Democrats who opposed acceptance of the settlement were joined by 17 Republicans, two Independents and one Socialist while 12 were paired against the proposal and 17 did not vote.

MUSSOLINI UNDER FIRE

The Mussolini government came under fire in the debate as well as the settlement itself. Representative Rainey, Democrat, Illinois, picturing
the Premier as a "ferocious and vicious dictator" and charging him with destroying the liberties of his people.

Representative Garrett, of Tennessee,
see Democratic leader, Representative Hull, Democrat, Tennessee, also were prominent in the opposition.

Terms of the settlement were defended as fair and equitable by chairman Green of the Ways and Means committee which presented the acceptance resolution, and representative
Burton, Republican, Ohio and Crisp, Democrat, Georgia, who served with the debt commission.

The remaining debt settlements are those with Latvia, Estonia, Belgium, Roumania and Czechoslovakia.

CASHIER ADMITS BANK BOOKS WERE INCORRECT

Madison—(AP)—Thomas S. Saby, former cashier of the First National Bank of Alma, Wis., as questioned in federal district court here Saturday about affairs of the bank and other commercial ventures in which he was interested.

Saby, charged with misappropriation of funds of the bank which later failed, admitted under cross examination that some entries in the bank's books were incorrect. He testified that he had attempted to keep the concerns in which he was interested in operation, among them the Alma Investment Co. In questioning him about obligations owed to the bank
when it was suspended, the government sought to show that persons had borrowed money from the bank and then invested it in other concerns with which Saby was connected.

HIGHWAY 14 IS ADDED TO FEDERAL SYSTEM

Madison—(AP)—State trunk highway 14, extending across the northern part of Wisconsin from the Michigan line at Escanaba to the Minnesota line at the Twin Cities, has been added to the federal system of interstate highways.
L. C. Anderson, chairman of the state highway commission, announced Saturday.

United States route 12 will coincide with state trunk highway 12 for its entire length. Mr. Anderson also announced. The road runs across the state from Genoa City to St. Paul. The changes were made by the executive committee of the American Association of State Highway officials.

MANITOWOC ABANDONS ITS POTTERS FIELD

Manitowoc—(AP)—Manitowoc is to abandon its potters field. Hereafter unknown and indigent buried here will be provided with a grave site and will have their final rest without the stigma of the potters field attached to them.

CAL CENTER OF STRIKE DEBATE

GRANGE, ZUPPKE
MEET AT BANQUET
AND SHAKE HANDS

Is Angeles, Calif.—(AP)—A reconciliation between Harold "Red" Grange and his former coach,
Robert Zuppke, was effected here
Friday night at a banquet in honor of Zuppke by University of Illinois alumni. Grange walked walked out of a business conference to shake hands with Zuppke.

Zuppke wished his former protege success in his professional football career. Zuppke said he intended to see the game Saturday.

All was set Saturday for the clash between Grange's Chicago Bears and the Los Angeles Tigers.

SURTAX RATES NOT YET SETTLED

Senate Will Reconsider Part of the House Reduction Bill

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—The important surtax rates of the house tax reduction bill will be reconsidered by the Senate finance committee with a view to working out a reduction of some of the lower brackets.

The committee decided to reopen
these schedules Saturday although it previously had voted approval of the house rates, which would reduce the surtaxes on incomes over $44,000. Democratic members have proposed a sub-schedule, calling for greater reductions particularly on incomes between $22-000 and $100,000.

Senator Simmons, of North Carolina, ranking Democrat on the committee, indicated he would fight for an increase in the maximum surtax
of 20 per cent provided by the bill.
There were indications Saturday that the administration Senators would insist on the 20 per cent maximum.

Concluding its work on the administrative provision of the bill, the committee voted to permit payment in installments of taxes on real estate profits, where the sales themselves are made on the installment plan. Instead of becoming due in a lump sum,
when the mortgage is executed, the tax on each installment would become payable in the year the installment becomes due. Various real estate men have advocated this provision.

TAMMANY WANTS SMITH TO STAY IN POLITICS

New York—(AP)—Despite Governor Smith's insistence that his announced intention to retire to private life "must be," some Democratic leaders are hopeful that he will be induced to run again for the governmental office. John F. Hyland is sarcastic.

The man whose hopes for reelection
as mayor of New York were blasted by the governor's campaign against him last fall, exclaimed:

"What, again? That's about the hundredth time he has said that. Nobody can believe him."

Up-state leaders are particularly hopeful that the governor will disregard personal wishes, as he did in 1922 and 1924 and enter the lists. New York city leaders, however, are convinced that the governor means what he says.

Says Washington Swore, Danced And Played Cards

New York—(AP)—Rupert Hughes,
the novelist, still insists that George Washington "gambled, swore profusely, played cards and danced all night"
but he doesn't think any the less of him for it.

Last night at a lecture on literature
he repeated much of what he had said in Washington Tuesday night to the scandal of some members of the Sons of the American Revolution. There was heckling when he said "Washington stayed up all night and danced with the ladies."

"Well, what if he did?" shouted a woman in the gallery, who had been resticulating in indignation. "He was the father of our country."

ATTITUDE IS BOTH LAUDED AND ATTACKED

Senator Copeland, New York, Scores President on Anthraxite Matter

BULLETIN
Washington—(AP)—A resolution proposing that President Coolidge seize and control the anthracite mines for the duration of the strike was introduced Saturday by Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York, after action on his proposal that the president merely be requested to act, had been blocked by opposition from both sides of the chamber.

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—President
Coolidge was assailed and defended Saturday in the Senate because of his attitude toward the anthracite suspension.

Recalling that Theodore Roosevelt had prevented a tie up of the mines
during his administration, Senator Copeland, Democrat, New York, said
he felt confident that President Coolidge could bring relief to the present situation by taking a similar course.
"But doesn't the senator know the 'big stick' has dwindled considerably
since those days?" asked Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri.

"Let its becoming a wand now" returned Senator Copeland.

Senator Reed commended the president for the position he has taken saying that he was inclined to the belie that if there never had been a 'big stick' the country probably would be better off.

"The President of the United States has no more right to go outside of the law than any other citizen" he said.

Senate discussion was on a resolution by Senator Copeland requesting that the president take whatever steps "necessary and proper" to bring about an immediate resumption of anthracite mining.

ACTION IS DELAYED

When Senator Copeland called up his resolution with a view to immediate action, Chairman Odell, of the mines committee, said the measure should not be acted upon at this time,
as his committee was considering a general bill relating to both the anthraxite and bituminous mining industries.

Replying to an inquiry by Senator
King, Democrat, Utah, Senator Odell gave assurances that the bill before the committee now does not contemplate government operation of coal mines in case of emergency.

Appealing to the "Senate in the name of 'suffering thousands'" in his state, Senator Copeland said he was sorry to see evidence on the part of some senators to delay action.

Calling attention that the Supreme court has held congress cannot control labor in industry, Senator Robinson of Arkansas, the Democratic leader, said a constitutional amendment might be necessary to protect the public from a combination of operators and miners.

DISTILLATE EXPLODES, BLOWS MAN 150 FEET

El Segundo, Calif.—(AP)—An 80,000 barrel tank of distillate exploded in the Standard Oil Storage plant here Saturday. One man was said to have been blown 150 feet. Several are reported injured.

God Uppermost In Minds Of Entombed Coal Miners

Fairmont, W. Va.—(AP)—When things looked darkest for the 21 men entombed in an air lock following an explosion in the Jamison Coal and coke Co. mine near here, their uppermost thought was of God, and a greater portion of the 18 hours they spent in their underground prison was devoted to discussion of the bible and in prayer.

This was revealed by John M.
(Jock) McNeil, 60-year-old compressor engineer, who with Lee Fetter, a foreman, supervised the construction of the baled hay barricade to protect the little band from the mine gases which were fatal to 19 of their fellow workmen.

Originally there were 23 in the group rescued, but two of them, both negroes and one a minister, perished in an attempted dash for the mine shaft
soon after the men had taken refuge

in the air lock. Before the minister left them, McNeil said, he led in prayer. Afterward McNeil served as leader.

McNeil, a robust man whose experience and coolness is generally credited as having been the dominating factor in saving the miners, was said by one of the rescue group to have given his share of the food to younger men who appeared more in need of it. The lunches of the men were equally divided when they first entombed. The small supply of water was carefully guarded but not used until one of the number became faint from the impure
air. The sickening man was then given a drink as a restorative.

None of the 21 men appeared to have suffered greatly from his experience underground.

Plans for the funerals of the 19 victims of the explosion were being made by relatives and friends Saturday.

WORLD COURT IS "LEAGUE COURT"

So Declares Senator Moses
as Debate Is Continued in Senate

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—The world court is a "league court" organized under plans formulated by the League of Nations and "existing to serve the league as lawyer and apologist," Senator Moses, Republican, New Hampshire, declared Saturday in the Senate.

Renewing Senate debate on the subject, Senator Moses, who was one of the "irreconcilables" in the league
Senate fight, contended that the league council desired to submit any case to the court for an advisory opinion, instead of whether the nations affected desired its submissions. Under the authority given to the league and the court by the treaty of Versailles,
he continued "there is no question affecting the relations of the United States, and other powers concerning which the court may not be required to render an advisory opinion."

"There certainly is no legal obstacle to prevent the council of the league
from submitting to the court the question of the competence of any of our debtors to pay the money
which they owe us," or from asking the court to render an opinion on the subject."

THESE EGGS DON'T COME UNDER PURE FOOD LAWS

Chicago—(AP)—Eggs ten million years old were placed on display in Stanley Field Hall of the Field Museum of Natural History Saturday.

The eggs, seven in number, were said by dinosaurs and buried in the sands of the Gobi Desert of Mongolia until discovered recently by Roy Chapman Andrews, leader of the third asiatic expedition of the American Museum of natural history, with the field museum cooperating.

"These are the first dinosaur eggs
ever identified by scientists," said Dr.
Elmer S. Riggs, head of the department of paleontology of the museum. The skull of a Dinosaur, also secured by the expedition, is included in the exhibit.

9-YEAR OLD BOY SHOTS OLDER SISTER TO DEATH

Racine, Wis.—Helen Lyszkowski, 14, was shot in the back and instantly killed Saturday morning by her brother Fred, aged 9, at their home in Franksville.

The lad was playing with a rifle
which he thought was unloaded.

The family recently came to Racine county from South Milwaukee.

IS MAKING STUDY OF OLD CHINESE DRUG

Madison, Wis.—(AP)—Hoping to discover new uses for it, Ko Kuen Chen,
a research student at the University of Wisconsin, is studying ephedrine, a 5,000 year old Chinese drug. One of its active constituents has been found useful in treating asthma and nasal congestion, the Wisconsin General hospital announced.

BOB WANTS LINE ON MEXICAN ROW

LaFollette Wants to Know
Why America Recognized
Mexican Government

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—Senator La-Follette, Republican, Wisconsin, Saturday introduced a resolution, asking the secretary of state for information concerning the conditions under which American recognition was granted in Mexico.

The resolution would particularly request information on agreements regarding exploitation of petroleum deposits and other natural resources.

In a statement Senator LaFollette said the controversy between the United States and Mexico over the Mexican land law and petroleum bill
"threatens to be serious and may cause a definite break with the Mexican government" and the Senate is entitled to full information.

Immediate consideration of the resolution was blocked by Senator Curtis, Republican leader.

YOUTH IS FREED OF MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

Manitowoc—(AP)—Howard Martin, 16-year-old high school student, tried in circuit court on a charge of manslaughter growing out of the death of Mrs. Byron Sniffins, 70, when she was run down by an automobile driven by the boy, was freed of the manslaughter charge by a jury Friday night. He was held guilty on a second count of the complaint, failing to stop to render aid to an injured person. Sentence will be passed later. Martin was driving a city truck which had been taken home by his father, who is a city employee.

The boy failed to reveal his identity
as driver of the death car until two days after the death of Mrs. Sniffins.

AGREE ON PLAN TO DRY UP PENNSYLVANIA TOWNS

Washington, D. C.—(AP)—Establishment of a thorough basis of cooperation in enforcement of prohibition in Pennsylvania was announced at the treasury Saturday after a conference between Governor Pinchot, Secretary Mellon and Assistant Secretary Andrews.

The Pennsylvania executive agreed to submit all evidence in his possession in support of his claim that the diversion of alcohol in Philadelphia has been extremely great. The conference was described by the governor as a harmonious discussion in which a free exchange of ideas as to ways and means of correcting conditions
took place.

Fond du Lac Senator Joins Race With Perry for Governor's Seat

FOR DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM

Promises to Put More Justice and Common Sense into State Problems

Fond du Lac—(AP)—State Senator
William A. Titus, of Fond du Lac, Saturday formally announced himself as a candidate for governor on the Republican ticket. He is the second candidate to make a formal announcement. As a m. b. l. man Charles R. Perry having entered the race several weeks ago.

Three others, Herman L. Ekers, attorney general, Fred Zimmerman,
secretary of state, and W. Stanley Smith, insurance commissioner, are potential candidates considering entry into the gubernatorial race.

WOL 10 ABOLISH BOARDS
In announcing his platform Mr.
Titus declared him to be in favor of a complete reorganization of the machinery of state government by abolishing a large number of useless boards, commissions and bureaus and the consolidation of others. He favors a non-salaried finance board made up of state officers on whom the responsibility of the government and its efficient administration will be placed. Senator Titus advocates first, a reduction of state expenditures and following this, a reduction of taxes and revision of the present tax law, declaring that the only safe way is to reduce the necessity for high taxes.

Commitments that are to be retained in state government should be bipartisan in formation and non-political in action, Senator Titus asserts.
Capital employees and state officers not elected to office should keep out of partisan political activities, he claims.

FUND FOR SCHOOLS
Other planks in the platform of Senator Titus are directed against the practice of legislators holding other offices through appointment of the governor or through commissions, the failure of the Wisconsin
blue book to carry a list of the state employees and commission members, together with their salaries; the platform advocates the passage of a bill which would collect inheritance taxes into a trust fund to be used for the financing of the common schools.

Some of the money so accrued could be loaned to farmers and home builders and thus bring in suitable interests for such fund, he believes.

NEARBY DEBATE TEAMS PRACTICE WITH LOCAL H. S.

Tryouts Will Be Held Wednesday—First Triangle Is March 19

Practice debates between Appleton high school teams and those of nearby towns will be held next Wednesday at the high school. These will be valuable to the debaters in preparation for the triangle debates in March, according to Coach Warren Wright. Only the coaches and the members of the teams will be present at the Wednesday meeting, and the names of the towns opposing are not announced.

Appleton affirmatives will debate the negative team of Green Bay at Green Bay on March 19, and Marinette affirmatives will meet the Appleton negative team on the same evening here. The winner of this triangle will in turn compete with the winner of the Oshkosh, Fond du Lac, Sheboygan triangle. It is planned to have the Appleton debaters meet teams from other schools after the regular triangle debates are over. This will help to keep up interest especially for the losing team. Otherwise the losers might have but one chance to debate an outside school.

Much of the material this year is from the junior class, with several sophomores making a good showing. This promises well for next year's debating work. Special interest has been aroused by having each contestant write for some of his own source material on the child labor law, which is the subject to be discussed this year.

That debate is not an activity apart from the rest of the school is evidenced by the cooperation of the faculty members. Miss Ruth McKennan, of the expression department, is working with two or three debaters to help them to perform in public. Miss Ruth Melke, librarian, has helped invaluable in the collection of source materials. Each squad will have nine members, making three negative teams, and three affirmative. Karl Windsheim, for two years coach of Appleton debating, is instructing and coaching debates at Oregon State college.

Appleton has been selected as the first city in which the comedy will be presented. The club will appear here on April 7, at Oshkosh on April 8, Sheboygan, April 9, Racine, April 10, Chicago, April 12, Indianapolis, April 13, Peoria, April 14, Davenport, April 15, Milwaukee, April 17, and Madison, April 22, 24 and May 2 and 3.

All Haresfoot productions are student made from book, lyrics and music to scenic effects and in each department work is done on a strictly competitive basis. Nearly 400 men compete for membership in the club each year.

WATSON HEADS PAINT CONCERN

First Annual Meeting of General Paint Co. Held — Business Grows

John D. Watson, local wire manufacturer, was elected president of the General Paint Co. at the organization meeting of its newly formed corporation Friday morning at the office of Benton & Bosser, attorneys. A highly successful year was shown in the reports.

Other officers elected were: L. A. Carey, vice president and A. H. Miller secretary and treasurer. Two other men, Harry Kahler and Roy and Hill were made members of the board of directors.

The concern started business here about two years ago with A. H. Miller as the owner and it now has an output two and a half times that of the first year. Mr. Miller was elected general manager of the company. Mr. Hill is the plant manager and Mr. Carey and Mr. Kahler are associated with the sales department.

MOUNT OLIVE CHOIR BROADCASTS SUNDAY

Members of Mount Olive Lutheran church choir will present two important concerts Sunday, the first at Waupun and the second at Fond du Lac. F. H. Jeebe is director of the choir. At 8:15 Sunday morning a program will be presented for prisoners at the state penitentiary at Waupun and in the afternoon the group will travel to Fond du Lac where it will broadcast from radio station KFJX, the Fond du Lac Daily Commonwealth station. Appleton residents have been urged to "listen in" on the afternoon program though no definite time has been set for it. The trip will be made in case if the weather conditions permit.

From School Teacher To Great Eminence

A young man who was brought up on a farm in Western Pennsylvania studied diligently and qualified for district school teacher. Further pursuing his studies and teaching, he managed to save up enough money to put him through medical college. He began the practice of medicine in the new oil section of Pa.

He was a student of nature, knew and could easily recognize most of the medicinal plants growing in the woods.

Later he moved to Buffalo, N. Y. where he launched his favorite remedies, and in a short time they were sold by every druggist in the land. Today, the name of this man, Dr. R. V. Pierce, is known throughout the world. His Golden Medical Discovery is the best known blood medicine and tonic. More than fifty million bottles have been sold in the U. S. If your druggist does not sell the Golden Medical Discovery, in liquid or tablets you can obtain a trial pkg. of the tablets by sending 10c to the Dr. Pierce Clinic, in Buffalo, N. Y.

NEW WHISTLES ON FIRE CARS WILL CLEAR STREETS

Even Deaf Can Hear Shriek of Buckeyes Now on Five Trucks

Complaints of motorists that they do not hear the fire sirens quickly enough to clear the path for the department's trucks when they are speeding to a fire, will not avail in the future. Appleton firemen put in a hard day's work Friday installing Buckeye whistles on all of the trucks to replace the old siren.

Numerous complaints were recorded against the inability to hear the sirens, but the new whistle is guaranteed "to make even the deaf hear."

In fact a local man who is deaf visited No. 1 department Thursday after the first had been installed on the chief's car and one of the men worked the whistle until the visitor motioned to him with both hands to stop. He later asked if the men had the new whistles installed for his benefit. Any man who is so deaf that he cannot hear the new Buckeye's tune, also is far too deaf to be allowed to drive a car, according to Nicholas Reider, assistant chief of No. 1 engine house.

Buckeye whistles have been placed on all four trucks and on the chief's car. They operate through the exhaust. A similar whistle is in use on the police patrol, but those on the department vehicles will be much louder because the motors are much more powerful and the exhaust pipes are bigger and shorter.

No Demonstration can reveal all of BUICK Excellence

ANY time you drive a Buick you will wonder how such a remarkable car can be sold at such a moderate price.

In just a few minutes you will realize that you are starting, stopping, parking, driving with much greater ease and security. And that you are surrounded by quality and luxury which rank with the very finest.

But demonstration will tell only part of the Buick story, and you should know all of it.

A demonstration cannot show you the enduring stamina of body and chassis that belongs to Buick. Years are necessary for that. It can only suggest the powerful ability of Buick's 75 horsepower Valve-in-Head engine, built for hills. It cannot tell you how thoroughly the Buick "Sealed Chassis" and the Buick "Triple Sealed" engine will protect Buick performance on dusty, gritty roads.

And it cannot even hint of the mental ease you will enjoy, with Buick Authorized Service "just around the corner," everywhere in America.

URGE TUNNEL TO WIDEN PASSAGE AT PAPER MILL

Street Committee Studies
Plan to Relieve Congestion
at Fox River Plant

A new suggestion for widening S. Onelda-st between two mills of the Fox River Paper company is being studied by the street and bridge committee of the common council at the instigation of Alderman Mike Steinhauer, First ward.

The proposal calls for removing the east walk, relaying the interurban tracks next to the wall of the factory mill and then cutting a tunnel through the first floor of the mill to provide sidewalk space on that side of the street.

This arrangement, Alderman Steinhauer believes, will go along way toward relieving the congestion in the narrow street. At present, he points out, automobiles cannot pass the interurban car when it is coming between the mills. If the tracks are made to swing to the east side of the street starting at E. Water-st, automobiles will be free to pass, he points out. The street at this point should be 60 feet wide, but the city permitted the paper company to occupy a part of it, he said.

The portion of the building which the alderman would have torn open now contains a generator, he says, which would have to be moved to some other part of the building at some expense.

Mr. Steinhauer introduced the subject at the last council meeting and that body referred it to the street and bridge committee. It will seek a conference shortly with W. C. Wing, head of the Fox River Paper company, to discuss the possibilities of the project.

Old "Conventions" Are Still In Force, Modern Girls Learn

BY CYNTHIA GREY

Don't you think what is known in etiquette books as the 'conventions' ought to be revised?" writes a girl who signs her letter "Steno."

"No one," she goes on, "observes them any more. What girl takes a chaperone around with her? Who sends her beaux home at 10:30? Who won't accept more than flowers, candy and books from a man—if she can get it? Who doesn't kiss before she is engaged? Who pays any attention to all the old stuff anyhow?"

Well, one would get the idea, to read the current magazines and the daily paper, that not very many young people did, at least not the ones enumerated by this girl.

Certainly there is more freedom all around particularly among girls who take things into their own hands and don't stop to think about Mrs. Grundy.

But in the girls' schools, the colleges and finishing schools where girls are carefully trained, the older traditions still prevail. The jazz age hasn't upset all the established values.

The most artistic boarding school in New York, where the daughters of many of the foremost social families of the country are "finishing," is just as strict now in its demands as it was before all this talk about freedom.

The girls have to wear petticoats. Petticoat inspection is a regular institution. The girls do not go shopping without a chaperone, they do not receive telephone calls from persons not on the accredited lists of their parents or guardians. There are only a limited number of plays they may attend.

They cannot receive candy even from home. They must be in bed by ten o'clock.

These girls are all daughters of first families being groomed to take high positions in society. Yet they are being reared just as conventionally and strictly as their mothers were.

This is a finishing school. The University of California, a co-educational school where the students are much older and a less conservative spirit prevails, has issued the following list of transgressions that will not be tolerated from girl students.

Coming home from dances after 1 o'clock.

Entertaining masculine friends after 10:30 p. m.

Hose rolled to the knees.

Generous use of rouge and lipstick.

All extremes in dress and conduct.

Indulgence in cigarettes.

Petting parties.

Drinking intoxicants.

We can't get along without conventions, which are, after all, only the established and the safest ways of regulating our conduct. We can't throw them to the winds in one generation.

And at the colleges and schools and institutions where the most careful training is given to young girls, what "Steno" calls the old stuff is still very much observed.

2nd Party Of Masons Next Week

Waverly lodge of the Masonic order will hold its second of a winter series of dancing parties at Masonic temple Friday evening of next week according to announcement of G. L. Clanton, chairman of the social committee.

Several surprises are to be introduced the same as at the last party. Menning orchestra has been reengaged by request to furnish the music, and an effort will be made to bring out a large crowd. Those eligible to attend include all master Masons and their wives or friends.

The social committee also is arranging for the second stag party of the lodge for the season. There was an attendance of 158 at the last one and a vote was taken then to have a supper at the next one. The repeat therefore is being arranged for the evening of Jan. 29. The social committee will meet at 7 o'clock Tuesday night at the temple with officers of the Eastern Star to plan the supper. Women of the latter lodge are to serve the repast.

All Masons will be invited to the supper even though all might not be able to stay for the social program and smoker afterward. Bridge and schafkopf are to be played. A member has donated a table prize and there will be a number of small ones.

FAWN GETS AIR

Fawn Gray, dancer, who recently won Harry Thaw's attentions and a $10,000 bracelet, went to Chicago to visit Evelyn Nesbit, who is recovering from a dose of poison. She got no farther than the office of the West Side hospital. When word came out that "Miss Nesbit does not wish to see you," Fawn said she was terribly hurt by the slight. She had brought a bouquet of roses for Evelyn.

Breakfast—Baked winter pears, cereal, thin cream, creamed dried beef on toast, crisp graham toast, milk, coffee.

Luncheon—Vegetable soup, croutons, oyster salad, rye bread, lemon sponge pudding, plain cookies, milk, tea.

Dinner—Roast lamb, browned potatoes, currant jelly, buttered canned peas, date salad, coconut pudding, bran rolls, milk, coffee.

The vegetable soup is made without a meat stock in as much as a hearty salad is served.

DATE SALAD

Wash dates well and drain. Make a thin syrup using 2 tablespoons sugar to 1 cup boiling water. Add 2 or 3 dates for each person to be served. Dip dates into the syrup and then place on a shallow pan. Put into a moderately cool oven to plump and dry. Remove stones. To 1 package of Philadelphia cream cheese add 4 tablespoons finely chopped nuts. Work in cream until the mixture is smooth. Season with salt and pepper to taste while mixing. Fill the prepared dates with this mixture. Arrange on a bed of lettuce. Drop a spoonful of mayonnaise in the center of each plate and top with a teaspoonful of whipped cream lightly seasoned with salt and made a bit pink with paprika. Household Hints

KNOW COSTS

In marketing, watch the difference between real and apparent costs. For instance, rump steak at 50 cents a pound is virtually all edible. The real and apparent costs are thus the same. Sirloin steak, however, has much waste. A steak selling for 38 cents would have contained sufficient waste to bring the cost of the portion actually used to 74 cents.

MILK HINTS

Take in milk as soon as possible after delivery. Don't leave bottles in reach of animals. Wash bottles before placing in refrigerator, in order to avoid carrying contamination. Do not return milk from the table to the bottle of cold milk. Do not leave milk out of the refrigerator for one unnecessary minute.

GUEST ROOM HINTS

The guest rooms should contain, materials, night light, night table, among other things, pins, sewing books, stationery, pens and ink, wastepaper basket, and trunk rack. The guest room closet also should contain a handkerchief bag, clothes bag, rack for shoes, coat hangers, and a wrapper if intended for a woman.

He has been a director for seven years.

Wigs Quite The Thing In Florida

New York—Once it was considered great misfortune to wear a wig. Today it is a greater one not to have three or four or even six to wear.

Indeed, many women going south for the winter have ordered different wigs for different hours of the day, according to Manuel, the fashionable hairdresser of New York and Paris.

"They also suit different moods," he says. "A transformation of cool, silvery white is exquisite for evening or for wear with the negligee. It is femininity itself."

"With her most dashing costumes and daring color combinations, the fashionable woman will select a transformation of black that is sleek and shiny, or one of coppery red."

And if she wants to capture some other woman's suitor, or conduct a heavy conquest of any nature, if she is knowing, she will probably wear a fluffy blond one.

"The wearing of the transformation," Manuel went on, "is a mode that is sponsored by the most fashionable society women who depend upon their coiffure to achieve distinguished effects."

Since short hair has become so general, you may well ask where the long hair for wigs comes from.

"Most of it is secured from the peasants in the Swiss mountains," explains Manuel.

"It must come in the natural shades ranging from black through every shade of brown, chestnut, blond and white."

"Naturally the white is most difficult to secure—and now it is most in demand—owing to the fact that few women who have beautiful heads pure white hair are not sufficiently vain to want to keep them."

"In New York and Paris shops I use more than 400 pounds of hair each year."

HUGE CROWD AT OLD TIME PARTY

About 2,000 persons attended the old time dancing party given Friday evening at the August Brandt Co. garage. The dance was the feature attraction of the national Ford display week, which has been observed throughout the country by Ford dealers with special exhibits and entertainments.

Most of the dances Friday were the old fashioned variety such as the square dance, schottisch, waltz, and two step. Music was furnished by a four piece orchestra.

FASHION HINTS

KNICKERS OUT

Short skirts, worn over tight breeches or breeches modified only slightly from the riding kind, have replaced knickers almost entirely for sports wear this winter.

THE NEW PINK

"Enfant Pink," the new shade, is sharing honors almost evenly with white at every important social event. Pink and gold lace scarfs and black hats seem to form the natural complement to gowns of this shade.

ENSEMBLE

The two or three-piece ensemble and frocks giving the ensemble effect are the smartest models seen on the streets now. For either street or afternoon wear they are charming.

METAL CLOTH

A stunning frock recently introduced carries out the two-piece effect with a sort of jacket of silver metal cloth, cut with the wrap effect and the "tail" which is being featured abroad reaching nearly to the floor, caught in a loop at the right side. The skirt was of white.

BLACK LACE

A most charming negligee of black, filmy lace trimmed with maribou recently has made its appearance.

CHIFFONS

Printed chiffons in pastel shades, applied on pale pink chiffon are proving unusually popular for southern wear. The long full sleeve tied in at the wrist, which is the latest touch of fashion, is seen in nearly all these models.

TAPESTRY BAGS

The tapestry bag, in needle point, petit point and Aubusson is holding its own in the shop windows. The prices range so that they are within reach of almost everyone, and they are very smart.

OSTRICH FANS

The ostrich fan, which has been taking the rear row seats for some time, has come into its own. Natural colors, pastels and brilliant shades all are correct and charming.

Special to Post-Crescent
Waupaca—In the competition for the position as postmaster of Waupaca, Walter Nelson practically is assured the appointment. A wire from Washington, D. C., announces that he has been nominated and only the confirmation by the United States senate is lacking to make the job official. Mr. Nelson is one of the three named as eligible by the civil service commission. He is a popular business man, a veteran of the World war and a native of this city. Circuit court for Waupaca-co. will convene Monday, Feb. 8, according to notices sent out by the clerk of courts, Ing. Ovrum, Thursday.

Much of the work laid out for the session will be on cases continued from the fall sessions. Technicalities are playing an important part in placing the LaValley case on trial. LaValley has asked for a change of venue and according to the statutes the defendant must be tried in some court of an adjoining county.

Possible retrial may be held next month of the case of C. A. Thoreson co. vs. John Vig. It was tried in the fall session and a jury found for the defendant but the verdict was set aside. The Thoreson Co., operating a bus between this city and Clintonville sued Mr. Vig for damages resulting from a collision between the bus and a car owned by Mr. Vig.

CLASSIFICATIONS 11-12 IN TODAY'S CLASSIFIED SECTION.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

BARBARA HAWLEY, 25, breaks with her fiancé, BRUCE REYNOLDS, and gets a job on the Appleton Telegraph in order to see life. ANDREW McDERMOTT, the managing editor takes an interest in her because of his friendship for her father, now dead.

She also makes friends with BOB JEFFRIES, rough and ready police reporter, and with him covers many exciting assignments.

Bruce joins a real estate firm that is starting a million-dollar development scheme in a section called Vale Acres.

Barbara starts out to prove that there are no sex limitations on achievement in the newspaper world.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

CHAPTER XII

"I wish," said Barbara, pushing away her dessert, "that Bruce and I hadn't broken off so theatrically."

Mrs. Hawley gave a little questioning "hm-m." It was the first time that Barbara had mentioned Bruce since the quarrel.

"You see," continued Barbara thoughtfully, "there is something I should like to tell him—something that a friend ought to tell him. But I can't after that high tragedy exit that he made. It would not do."

"What is it, Babs?"

"Well, I heard two men discussing his new real estate firm today, and one of them said some pretty harsh things about this Manners, the senior partner. I observed him the day I was sent to his office. I don't think I'd trust him myself. I wonder if Bruce knows what he's about?"

Mrs. Hawley considered the question a moment. "I don't think you could suggest anything wrong about the firm without more definite reasons than those, Babs. You've nothing but a chance remark of a stranger to judge by."

"Of course, that's true," answered her daughter, rising from the dinner table. "Better forget all about it. After all, Bruce and I are no more to each other than strangers. I couldn't even go to him as a friend, if I KNEW there was something wrong."

The telephone rang and Barbara ran to answer it. In the hasty, nervous way she had acquired of late, Mrs. Hawley listened from the dining room.

"Why yes, Bob," she heard her daughter say. "I'd love to go. Is it evening dress? Yes, I can get ready in time by coming home early Friday afternoon. What fun! All right, Goodby."

Barbara came dancing back into the dining room. "A chicken dinner at the Lighthouse Friday night, mumsy," she cried. All the newspaper crowd and some local champagne and oceans of local color."

She pivoted on one toe around the table. "Do you know how long it's been since I have been on a dance floor?" she asked suddenly, stopping in her flight. "Exactly ten weeks. And I haven't had an evening dress on in that time, or been to a show."

She frowned. "What have I been doing, mumsy?"

"Mostly working, I think," replied her mother. "And it won't do, first thing you know, you'll get a wrinkle."

Barbara stared at her mother. "Don't, mumsy," she exclaimed. "I've been reminded of my age three times today, and the memory is still sore. My goodness, 25 isn't exactly a decrepit age, is it?"

"Of course not, but the kind of life you're leading would bring wrinkles at 15, Barbara. And 25 is a dangerous time with all women. They either fade and shrivel or blossom out at that point."

"Well, let's forget it, and go short on my evening dress, mumsy dear. I'm not too old to dance, anyhow."

The plain little yellow taffeta lay in its box, primly folded.

"It's done good service, hasn't it, mother?" Barbara was shaking it out of its tissue paper and darning it by the sleeves.

A withered rose tied with a bit of tulle fell out of the dress upon the hearth rug.

Mrs. Hawley covered it with her foot, and, when her daughter turned away, kicked it into the fire.

Barbara's pay envelope felt bulkier than usual when she called for it next day. She fingered it anxiously, for she had heard tales of notes of dismissal enclosed in pay envelopes, without warning.

Around the corner, by the drinking fountain, she tore it open hurriedly. There, instead of the usual twenty dollar bill and five dollar bill, were a twenty and two fives. She went beaming back to the reporters' enclosure.

"What's the matter, Barbarian?" asked Bob. "Have you just scored a world beat, or did you meet a new man last night?"

"Neither," replied Barbara, too happy to resent the raillery. "I've got a raise."

"Hooray," cried Bob. "Now we can both eat, even when I'm broke. What's the grand promotion for?"

"I don't know, but maybe because I've been looking down-hearted and dissatisfied lately. Almost all in when night comes, nowadays, Bob."

"Nonsense," The Telegraph was never known to give a raise because a reporter looked as if he wanted one. Otherwise, we'd all spend our time before our mirrors learning to register dissatisfaction. You got that raise because the boss likes your work. You have a right to be up-stage, after just two months, on the sheet, Barbara."

"It's only five dollars a week, you know, Bob, but isn't it funny what a difference it makes?"

"Sure it does. It's a symptom of success, first of all. And then it is five dollars' worth of good, spendable United States currency, too. Don't ever forget that."

Barbara hummed a little tune as she went back to her desk. Jimmy had piled it high with the day's accumulated loveless mail.

She began to tear open the envelopes, picking the highly colored ones first and chucking over the contents as she read.

"How many mother-in-law letters today?" asked Byers, the timid little man who wrote the fiery play reviews. He stopped to glance over her shoulder.

"No mothers-in-law today, but a lot of bay friends and 'Is-it-wrong-to-put?' letters."

She was tearing open a particularly violent pink envelope, from which rose a strong odor of synthetic violets. The timid critic drew back as if from a gas attack.

Barbara jumped to her feet, in a peal of laughter. "Just listen to this," she cried. Everybody looked up.

"Dear Winnifred:

"I am writing to you because, I know you are sympathetic with the troubles of young girls. I'm not so awfully young—24, in fact, but with my hair bobbed, my friends say I am as cute and young looking as a kid of 16."

"Now my trouble is that I have fallen in love with a man who is by far my social superior. He hardly knows I am on earth yet. But I feel that if I cannot attract his attention and make him love me, my heart will bleed."

"This young man is very nice mannered, dear Miss Winnifred. And I am sure he looks upon me as a gentleman should. But will you tell me how I can make him notice me more and really love me, as I feel I must be loved, unless my heart is going to break?"

"P. S.—How can I take beer stains out of a pink silk kimono?"

"P. S.—Is there any way to make eye lashes curl? Mine are beautiful and heavy, but they are quite straight. It is really very aggravating, as my eyes themselves are considered beautiful."

"She needn't say anything more, need she?" laughed Barbara. "I can see the lady as plainly as if she were before my eyes. She wears a net breakfast cap and drinks beer in a pink silk kimono, and her bed is never made from one day to the next."

"I can tell you more than that," said Byers. "She sprays extract of violets on all her clothes with a six-foot hose. And I'll bet she sleeps in her earrings."

"Shame on you two," cried Bob. "The poor kid really wants advice. And heaven knows she needs it. Give her a really good bunk of Winnifred, Babs. Tells her the way she should go to share the superior young man. I'll bet he's a handsome young ribbon clerk."

"Not so sure of that," replied Byers, thoughtfully. "I've known doctors and lawyers and even newspaper men to fall for a girl whose eyes are considered beautiful and whose lashes are long and heavy, beer stains and violet perfume and all. That kind of woman is quite free of the hoodoo of intellect in her sex life. I'll bet Violetta would be dangerous to any man in this office."

"Blah!" remarked Bob, elegantly. Barbara was writing the last paragraph of her answer to Violetta when he came and leaned against her desk.

"Just a minute, Bob," she said. "I'll finish telling the pink silk kimono how to land the man of her heart—though she undoubtedly knows more about it than I'll ever know."

"Not at all," he replied. "You women are all alike. Colonel's lady and historic Judy—both vamps from birth by instinct. And only a slight difference in your methods."

"Well, Mr. Wise Man, what can I do for you?"

"This is how it is, Babs. Seems Miss Badger got up this dinner party Friday night and has told somebody I am going to take her. Heaven knows why she should, but since she is hostess, or at least originator of the pow-wow, I honestly haven't got the nerve to let her down."

"I didn't know she meant me for her very own when she was asking me if I could go. Gosh, Barbara, I hate it. I'd rather take you a thousand times. You know that. But she'll label me a blackguard and an insulter of defenseless womanhood if I back out now."

"I'll tell you, Sinbad Sullivan hasn't any girl, and he's dying to take you, anyhow. Says you look like a peach of a dancer. I'll pick up Miss Badger and Sullivan and come by for you at seven o'clock tomorrow night, if that's all right with you. We can all pile in the old boat."

Barbara smiled at him. "Of course I'll be all right, Bob. You'll see that Sinbad is sober, won't you?"

TIPOVER ALL IN DAY'S WORK FOR THIS AUTO

Turning halfway over and resting on its top on a street car track, seems but part of a day's work in the life of a light coupe, according to records of an accident which took place Thursday afternoon. The coupe in question struck a slippery spot while going down S. Oneida-st hill below Riverview Country and skidded clear across the road opposite the Pfeil Riding academy. As it hit the street car track it turned over on its top.

Its occupants were not even thrown from the car and were merely given a severe jolting while the car came through the trial with only a few scratches to mar its beauty. The occupants got out, turned the vehicle over, and were off again before any of the crowd which gathered could even learn their names.

As the climactic feature to the national display week there was an old-time dance at Brandt garage Friday evening.

WINTER COLDS ARE DANGEROUS

The serious diseases that develop from simple coughs or colds make them dangerous and they should not be neglected. There is no better remedy for quick relief from coughs and colds than Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. DEFER COURT CASES DUE TO REPORTER'S ILLNESS

Civil cases are disposed of with ease in municipal court these days, but only temporarily as the parties in the cases are required to return at a later date for settlement. Judge Theodore Berg is without the services of his reporter, Miss Margaret Hogan, who is ill and practically every civil case brought in is adjourned to a later date when Miss Hogan has returned. In this way the work will be piled up and plenty of it will greet the judge when the cases are resumed.

MENASHA HEARS COLLEGE TEAMS CONDUCT DEBATE

Appleton and Neenah Broadcast Listeners Represented at Meeting

Menasha—Menasha Radio club organized a week ago by a comparatively small group of radio fans now has a membership of 200. It is the intention of members to more than double that number. This will be accomplished by each member securing an additional member.

The second meeting of the club was held at the city hall Friday night and was well attended. The ward committees appointed to solicit members exceeded expectations. One member turned in 45 and another member who was unable to be present has 50 names to turn in at the next meeting.

Neenah and Appleton also were represented at the meeting with the Fox river valley organization. A portion of the meeting was occupied with a discussion of personal experiences relative to reception and interference. A committee consisting of President Frank Lantz, F. J. Oberweiser, E. B. Weber and W. E. Field was appointed to consult the Wisconsin Traction, Light, Heat & Power company concerning the elimination of interference as far as possible.

The club is making arrangements to have a radio expert give a talk at its meeting next Friday evening. The name of Charles Howell of Milwaukee was suggested and an effort is being made to secure him.

Christoph Send in Second Team When Regulars Stage Runaway

Neenah—Neenah high school basketball team defeated the Ripon team Friday evening at the Roosevelt gymnasium by a score of 24 to 8 before an audience of 500 people.

Coach Christoph started the game with Stulp and Cross at forward, Schneller, center, and Gaertner and Hollenback as guards. The coach put in his entire squad during the game. Ripon's team, while larger than the local team had no chance of coming even near to defeating the Red and White.

In the second quarter Gerke, Ripon's right forward, found the ring for two points and Fisher, a guard, rung up one point on a free throw. During this quarter Neenah made 6 points, ending the first half with a score of 13 to 3.

MENASHA WINS THRILLER FROM NEW LONDON '5

Two Overtime Periods Necessary to Determine Winner in Fierce Battle

Menasha—Menasha high school basketball team defeated New London 22 to 19 in S. A. Cook armory Friday evening in one of the most exciting high school games played in Menasha for several years.

The game was a tie, 17 to 17 and required two additional periods to decide. The first period ended in another tie, 18 to 18. The home team took no chances with their old rivals and played a strenuous game from the start. In the first half it led by a comfortable margin which disappeared toward the close of the second half.

The game was attended by an enthusiastic crowd that packed the building. This was due to the advance sales of tickets conducted by the different classes. The lineup of the home team was W. Klutz, center; Mool and Smith, forwards; and Jape and Pierce, guards. C. Klutz succeeded Smith in the second half.

MOVABLE SIDEWALKS LATEST TRAFFIC AID

Paris—(P)—Moving sidewalks will be established on the fashionable Paris boulevards and a few other congested thoroughfares in an effort to meet the transportation problem, if experiments conducted by the inventions office show the expected result.

The principal point to solve is the gradual transition from normal walking pace to a speed of eight miles an hour, without subjecting the passenger to jolts or the danger of a fall.

Two systems now under trial partly accomplish this. The first, however, which consists of small fixed rollers, turning on themselves, imparts a thickening sensation to the sole of the foot.

The second, which is made of strips of leather belting, is free from this defect but the transition from one speed to another is more abrupt. Both systems are provided with moving handrails on either side.

A son was born Saturday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Huebner, at Theda Clark hospital.

A daughter was born Friday at Theda Clark hospital, to Mr. and Mrs. Torvald Peterson.

PURE OF AMERICA CAUSE OF IRISH SPEECH DECAY

Dublin—(P)—America's lure for sons and daughters of old Erin is held largely responsible for decay of the native Irish language.

A government commission seeking to find the best means of preserving the language found that 75 per cent of the girls and boys born in Irish speaking districts look upon the United States as their future home.

Even in the Dingle peninsula, in Kerry, which is the principal home of native speech in Munster, it was learned that of the children in one parish who left school between 1912 and 1922, more than half emigrated and many of those left are only waiting their turn under the quota, or financial assistance from friends in America.

FEUERSTEIN HAS WON REPUTATION OF QUALITY WORK

Appleton Concern Has Built Up Big Business in Upholstering Furniture

When furniture is upholstered in an Appleton shop, crated and shipped away as far as California to persons who formerly lived in Appleton and were patrons of the upholsterer, it would seem that scarcely any other recommendation was necessary for the work done in this shop. This has been the experience of R. L. Feuerstein, furniture upholsterer who has his shop at 715 W. Harris-st. The Feuerstein upholstering shop is one of the oldest in Appleton. The business was established by Charles A. Feuerstein in 1885, and was taken over by R. L. Feuerstein in 1923. In addition to his trade in Appleton, Mr. Feuerstein also has built up an extensive business in Neenah, Menasha and Kaukauna.

In addition to upholstering and recovering furniture of the modern overstuffed style, Mr. Feuerstein also does a great deal of antique furniture upholstery. Weaving of cane seats and backs in chairs is also done at this shop. A great deal of work is done in the renovating of hair and moss mattresses and box springs.

Mr. Feuerstein makes calls at homes where there is furniture to be upholstered and estimates the price of work to be done. Samples are brought to the home, so the party to be upholstered can see the work done on material with the furniture, draperies, rugs and wall colorings in the house. A free delivery service to and from the Feuerstein shop is maintained.

The need for first class upholstery is greater now than at any time in the history of furniture. Years ago a great deal of the furniture had hardwood seats, and needed few repairs and of course no upholstering.

The replacing of the old stove heating systems in many houses by furnace heating has greatly increased the use of furniture. Years ago certain rooms of large houses were shut off from the other rooms because it was too expensive to heat the entire building by the old stove method. Now practically all homes are heated throughout, during the winter, and as a result the furniture is used much more extensively.

DENOMINATIONS NOW RUN 600 HOSPITALS

(Chicago—AP)—The 600 hospitals operated under the auspices of denominational institutions having a property and endowment valuation of $350,000,000, are cited as evidence of a unification of common religious objectives and an adjustment of differences. "Theological dogma has found common ground in our attempt to meet a world need for physical and social reconstruction," said Dr. N. E. Davis, president of the American Protestant Hospital association. "The Association has developed a mutual dependence among the many religious organizations, which has aided in unifying our objectives."

WILL TRY TO PROVE LEIF FOUND AMERICA

(Oslo—AP)—To prove that it was impossible for Leif Ericson to have discovered America 500 years before Columbus, Captain Folkers intends to make an attempt to reach that country in a vessel the exact duplicate of the boats used by the old Vikings. His boat will be 40 feet long and 12 feet wide and will follow a route by Dover, Pinsterre, Madeira and then across the Atlantic in the hope of reaching Philadelphia.

The Norwegians still dispute Columbus' claims and insist Ericson was the discoverer of America.

Wall Street Expect Slump In Auto Business In 1926

Babson Park, Fla. Jan. 15, 1926.—Roger W. Babson today discusses with us the automobile industry in which so many people of every community are interested. He also has something to say about the building outlook. As Mr. Babson disagrees with most economists on these two subjects, his statement of today is very interesting.

"The two most important industries today are the automobile and the building industries. These two not only employ the most men, but they have the greatest ramifications and, indirectly, effect the greatest number of other businesses. Nothing—other than some great war, fire or earthquake—could so hurt general business today as a severe break in either the automobile industry or the building industry. Moreover, if a big break came in one of these industries, both would suffer because they are very closely allied. A chart of automobile production for the past five years looks almost the same as a chart of new building. Whether a man first builds a home and then buys an auto to get back and forth, or whether he buys an auto first and then builds a home in the suburbs to use it, statistics do not show. Statistics, however, do clearly indicate that both of these industries move together.

"This relation between the two industries is something specially to be remembered at the present time owing to the recent decline in the price of motor shares. Wall Street interprets this as meaning that a large number of dealers found themselves at the end of 1925 with a large number of unsold new cars and a tremendous number of second hand cars on hand. Wall Street believes that a slowing down of both the motor industry and the building industry is inevitable for 1926. If a great break in these two industries should take place, it would be blow to Detroit, the center of the automobile industry, and to New York, the center of building speculation. Let me here add, however, that the danger of speculation in building is not so evident in most other cities as it is in New York.

"Market letters of brokerage houses are saying that there soon should come a slump in the auto and building industries and if so, this will cause a slump in general business. I do not wish to go on record either for or against this forecast as it is automobiles and building. It may be that both have reached their peak and slumps are inevitable in 1926. I do, however, wish to make the point that these industries do not determine the prosperity of these industries. Presidents at the White House, no man is so short-sighted as the man who gets the cause and effect mixed up and substitutes one for the other. Moreover, the failures of many business men are due to taking the cause for the effect and vice versa.

"There need be no such thing as over-production in either the building or automobile industries for many years to come. Economists who, for the past few years, have been stating that a saturation point has been reached in these two industries, have been mistaken because technical saturation point is impossible. General business is like a certain amount of water which will only be given amount of salt in solution; but by increasing the amount of liquid, it is always possible to take up more salt. A certain volume of general business will absorb only a certain amount of new building, auto production and manufacturing in general. Without an increase in general business, a saturation point is reached so that more building or more autos cause a temporary over-production; but so long as general business increases, the saturation point rises proportionately. Hence, the importance of watching general business conditions.

"The automobile and building industries are even more deeply rooted than above outlined. They depend not only on general business, but are primarily based on the primitive instincts for a home and for travel. These are probably the two most deeply rooted instincts in the human race. Boys and girls get married in spite of business conditions, and as soon as they get married they want a home. Moreover, as almost the first instinct of the child is to creep so that instinct to move develops throughout life and is now showing itself in the automobile industry. These primitive instincts are really the basis of these great industries. Moreover, they are the basis of other industries as well, and fortunate are those manufacturers and merchants who produce and sell goods which satisfy the primitive instincts of men and women.

"During the past few weeks I have been interested in reading the advertisements of the more successful building promoters and automobile manufacturers. A woman is always in the picture. One ad is headed, 'Own a Home of Your Own,' another is headed, 'Buy a Car for Her.' Studies made by the great advertising agencies have shown that the sex instinct is the most powerful factor in many of the great industries. On the other hand, these primitive instincts, of themselves, cannot produce much. In fact, these primitive instincts were as strong centuries ago when there were no material comforts. Although desire is of primary necessity in growth, yet coupled with that desire there must be other material things in order to bring about a realization. These material things, in the case of the automobile, building and other allied industries, are wages, easy money and good business profits.

"There are three sources of purchasing power. The first source is the income of the agricultural and industrial districts. Although the farmer is in business for himself, yet we will group his income under the general term of wages. The greater the wages of the country, the greater the purchasing power and so long as the earnings of industrial and agricultural districts increase, so long will the motor industry and the building industry continue to grow. The second source is the ability to borrow money. When money is scarce and rates are high, the production of automobiles and other things is curtailed accordingly. Tight money, like unemployment, cuts down purchasing power; while easy money, like good business, increases purchasing power. The third source of purchasing power is business profits. The business man is a lavish spender. When he is making money he spends it easily and freely. When he is not making money he shuts down sharply. Many business men have not been making much of any profits during the past year. The outlook is that they will make more profits during 1926.

"The only fly in the ointment is the installment business which has been increasing so rapidly during the past five years, especially in the automobile industry. We have statistics on banking, manufacturing and employment; but we have no statistics which show the extent of the installment business. We know that almost every home has goods for which it has not paid; but to what extent this cancer is eating into general business no one really knows. We do know that it is a disease which some day will require the patient to have a severe operation; but whether or not the patient can go one year or five years before the operation is imperative, only the future can tell. It is true that fewer unsold goods are on the shelves of merchants today than have been for many years; but are goods really sold until they are paid for? Fundamentally, does it make any difference whether the unpaid goods are on the shelves of merchants or in the homes of the purchasers?

"In closing I urge readers to give more thought to the great primitive instincts of man. Statistics are useful and may even breed and butter depend on compiling and interpreting them. But everyone should realize that the world is ruled by feelings and not by figures. One business man may be expert with card files, efficiency systems and have an array of college degrees, but may be a failure because he doesn't understand the great human emotions which make the world go round. Another merchant may not have had even a high school education, but he makes a tremendous success because he understands men and women, their hopes, ambitions, sympathies and disappointments. I am often criticized for talking about religion and business in the same breath, but every year I am more convinced that the emotions, of which religion primarily treats, are the basis of all growth, both material and spiritual. Bank earnings, railroad earnings and foreign trade may be indices of general business conditions, but they have no power to do with determining business conditions than a thermometer has to do with determining the heat of a room. Business conditions are good at the present time. During 1924 the Babsonchart averaged 6 per cent below normal for the year. During 1925 the Babsonchart averaged 6 per cent above normal. Today the Babsonchart is 13 per cent above normal. Everything indicates that it will continue above normal during 1926 and the installment business does not cause a smash, 1926 should be a better year than 1925. Let us all, however, watch fundamental conditions and remember that the world is ruled by feelings and not by figures."

THIS IS TIME TO GET CAR 'DOLLED' UP FOR SPRING

Winters and Wiegand Equipped to Do Good Job of Automobile Refinishing

Now that the snow is piled up on country roads and tricky automobile radiators are apt to freeze without a moments notice, and motoring in the cold weather is far from being a pleasure no matter how optimistically one looks at it, this is the ideal time to lay the old bus aside for about two weeks in the Winters and Wiegand auto painting and auto body repair shop at 1305 N. Richmond-st., and have it dolled up for next spring with a brand new coat of paint. It takes only about two weeks to paint a car at the Winters and Wiegand shop, and the finished product gives the appearance of a machine that has just been turned out of the factory.

"The most effective painting job can be done when all the old paint has been removed from the car. This work may cost slightly more than putting on a fresh coat over the old paint, but it is the cheapest in the long run. The reason for this is that new paint put on over old is likely to ooze between the cracks in the old finish, and in this way get under the old paint, being entirely ineffective.

At least eight coats of paint are put on a car for a first class refinishing job. Where a lacquer finish is used only an hour is required for each coat to dry, but when the cheaper varnish is used a longer time for drying is required. The lacquer finish is guaranteed at the Winters and Wiegand shop for being the most permanent paint job, and for giving the most satisfaction. It is a hard surfaced finish, not easily scratched, and particles of dust and dirt do not adhere to it as they do to the cheaper grades of paint. The lacquer paint is sprayed onto the body of a car while the varnish and other paints are put on with a brush.

The process used in removing old finish from a car requires varnish remover to loosen the paint, and after this chemical has been applied the paint is easily scraped off with steel wool.

LUMBER SHIPMENT IS MORE THAN PRODUCTION

Figures for the lumber movement during the week ended Jan. 2 show that the reductions in consumers' stocks earlier in the year are resulting in the call for softwood being better spread over the winter months, says the American Lumberman, Chicago. At the end of last year, the mills had sold 2 per cent more than they cut throughout the year, while this year they had sold 2 per cent less than their production. But in the first week of last year, orders and shipments were only about equal to the cut, whereas in the week ended Jan. 2 both were about one-third above the week's cut, reported production being about the same for both weeks. These figures indicate that the unusually good winter demand will be continued.

Southern pine output was reduced during the week by heavy rains, and it reached only about 62 per cent of "normal." Shipments were 5 per cent and orders 4 per cent above the actual output. Mill stocks of pine are low, and assortments much broken, while for this time of the year the mills have good files. Trade is seasonally light, but the mills are receiving many inquiries which indicate that buying for spring trade will make an early start. There is good current demand for items used by the railroads, and prospect for a good year's business in these are very promising. Prices continue strong.

Douglas fir output amounted to only 61 per cent of "normal" for the week ended Jan. 2, and the mills sold 37 per cent more than they cut. They came to the end of 1925 with lower stocks than they had at the beginning, having sold and shipped four per cent more than their production. Middle West layers are now taking a fine volume of material. California trade is improving. Florida is furnishing a good outlet, and heavy shipments to the Atlantic coast will soon be needed for another big building season. Quotations are steady, and spring trade is likely to bring a firming up.

Southern hardwood demand was rather dull over New Year, as was to be expected, but the mills shipped a third more than they cut. Inquiry is heavy and prices are firm. Northern hardwood demand also was small over the holidays but buyers are showing great interest, there being many inquiries out, and prices retain their strength.

CHEAPER CLOTHING MAY RESULT FROM DISCOVERY

Manchester, England—(AP)—A wool substitute, said to be just as warm and comfortable as the real thing, is expected by its inventor to result in cheaper clothing.

The cloth is called Woolose and the manufacturer explained it consists of 70 per cent jute fibre and 30 per cent ordinary recovered wool. Supplied in the raw state, the material will sell at approximately three-quarters of the price of cheapest wool.

MILITARY BAND PLEASES CROWD

Exceptional Program Presented in Finished Manner by Local Organization

A program equaling in all respects any ever played here by the most famous bands and orchestras of the country was the verdict of people who attended the concert by the 120th Field Artillery band Friday evening in Lawrence Memorial chapel. The concert was dedicated to the Oney Johnston post of the American legion. The shading and tone quality revealed that every one of the musicians is a master of the instrument he plays. The crowd of music lovers in the chapel called for repeated encores after each number.

Numbers which brought out the greatest musical skill, and which received especially hearty applause were the "Palm Symphony" in E major No. 4 by Tchaikovsky, the overture "Columbus," and "Marche Militaire Francaise." Mrs. Oscar Adair sang "Sometime," accompanied by the band, and responded to two encores. Six girls from the Bannister School of Dancing presented several aesthetic dance numbers, and were well received. They were Vesper Chamberlain, Hazel Thomas, Norcia Roemer, Ora Zuehlke, Margaret Hamms and Myrtle Lueders.

As a broken degraded, once popular opera singer, she gives a sympathetic study of the character she portrays. Casting aside her real beauty, Miss Dresser plays a role quite hideous, yet tremendously artistic in her make-up, as an old drunken woman living in squalor in a small dilapidated farm house.

This tragic fate, once glorious and heralded in the newspapers as the real witness, to a murder. Seeking publicity, she fashions a story from the air and gets her son arrested for the crime.

Miss Dresser's make up in this part was said to have taken an hour and a half to put on. This is easily credited when one sees the comparison between the stately singer and the broken slattern.

COLLEEN MOORE IS BOOKED HERE SUNDAY
Ultra modernism as practiced in London society—quite the last word on the subject—is revealed in all its wildness in "We Moderns," the new First National offering to open at the Elite theater next Monday.

The new play of hectic high life among Britain's post-war youth brings back to the screen Colleen Moore in the type of characterization for which she is best known. For the space of two productions, Miss Moore appeared in most artistically sedate roles which demonstrated her great versatility. But her admirers continued to demand jazz—so in the coming production it is a plain case of "on with the dance."

Colleen is reported to give an electrifying performance and to have the support of an ideal cast with Jack Muhl as her leading man. Pictorial value is added to the picture by its gorgeous background of actual London as many scenes were made across the big pond. A stirring Zeppelin crash is included is effected it is said with startling realism. The picture was produced by John McCormick.

How Much Coal Do You Waste?

In heating your house you may be throwing away money with every shovelful of coal.

The heating plants of thousands of homes are wasteful, for one reason or another.

It may be that no matter how much fuel you burn your house is not satisfactorily warmed. The trouble should be located and corrected.

The trouble with your heating plant may be due to the selection of a furnace of the wrong type or size, to faulty installation, poor operation, or to ill fitting doors and windows.

You may secure a free Government publication on the subject which is certain to be of great aid to you if you are having furnace trouble of any kind. Our Washington Information Bureau will secure a copy for any of our readers who want it. Enclose two cents in stamps for return postage, and write your name and address clearly.

CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK

TAKES A LONG STEP FORWARD

Announces The Introduction of a "Profit Sharing Plan" With Its Employees

THIS forward looking, progressive BANK takes the lead in Appleton and this Section of the State in establishing this new and growing idea among banks of rewarding faithful employees by admitting them to a substantial share in the profits they help to create.

The "PLAN" as worked out by the Salary Committee of the Bank is in brief as follows:

Of the net profits remaining, after the payment of all expense of operating the Bank, including the payment of the customary fixed salaries to all employees, there is apportioned to the stockholders a fixed percentage on the invested capital equal substantially to the amount of the fixed salaries. All of the net profits then remaining are divided equally between the Bank and all of its salaried employees except the President and two other employees who are otherwise justly compensated. Profits are distributable semi-annually in July and January at about the same time the shareholders receive their dividends.

This action of the Bank gives to the participating employees practically all of the benefits of stockholders and the mutual advantages of this relationship are self evident.

It is believed by the Directors and Officers of the Bank that the Public-at-Large as well as its own customers and friends will view with high favor this evidence of the Bank's interest in, and good will towards its employees.

MORE OF OUR STORY

In keeping with its position as a leader among banking institutions in this territory, the CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK is rapidly broadening its activities and extending its facilities to cover every phase of banking and investment and trust service.

INVESTMENT SERVICE

Early in its history this Bank began to sell to its depositors and others, sound investment securities, consisting of high grade municipal, railroad, public utility, real estate, industrial and foreign government bonds. This business has grown rapidly of late years until it has become a very important branch of the Bank's Service. These investment sales in 1925 aggregated $884,000.00 sufficient evidence, we think, of the confidence of the investing public in our conservatism and sound financial judgment.

In order to supply this investment demand the Bank keeps on hand at all times about $250,000.00 of securities, purchasing only such bonds as the Bank considers absolutely safe and suitable for its own investment, and it is only such bonds that it offers to its clients. These investments can usually be supplied in $100. and $500. as well as $1000. amounts, and they yield from 5% to 6½% according to character and condition.

While this policy of selling investments retards the growth of deposits in all the banks from which funds are drawn for investment, we believe thoroughly that in thus promoting the prosperity of these people whom we serve, our Bank prospers with them, for in a farsighted way it is the good will and friendship of a growing list of satisfied customers that brings to the Bank added prestige and a sound, stable growth. In this as in other matters, we "serve to serve again."

For the benefit of our investing clientele, we also maintain facilities for open market transactions, and have established in the bank a "financial reference" room where investors can get full information and quotations on all standard securities in which they may be interested. This service is free to all, and you are invited to use it. The assistance of the officers of the bank in this connection is also at your disposal.

Typical of the bonds which the Bank distributes, it offers an assortment from its current January list, to-wit:—

First Methodist Church of Appleton 5½% First Mortgage bonds, due 1936 in $100., $500. and $1000. pieces. (Suitable for Wisconsin Trust Funds.)
Dodge Brothers Inc. 6% Debenture bonds due 1940, in $500. and $1000. pieces. (Third largest automobile company in the world.)
Public Service Co. of Colorado 5½% First and Refunding Mortgage bonds due 1954, in $100., $500. and $1000. amounts. (Serves electric light and power to the City of Denver and surrounding Counties.)
Soo Line R. R. Co. 5% First Mortgage and Refunding bonds, (owned by the C. & N. W. R. R.) $1000. pieces only.
Town of Phelps, Vilas Co. Wis. Serial 6% Road bonds, due 1933 to 1937. Sold to yield 5%. (Trust Fund investment in Wisconsin.)

For the benefit of investors, we publish and mail to a selected list of customers at the beginning of each month a list of current investment offerings. If you desire to have this list mailed to you it will gladly be done on receipt of your request.

BANKING SERVICE

We receive checking accounts of $50.00 and up.
We receive savings accounts of $1.00 and up, and pay 3½% interest thereon.
We issue time certificates of deposit drawing 3% interest.
We sell travellers cheques good anywhere in the United States and most foreign countries.

We sell Milwaukee, Chicago and New York drafts at current rates of exchange.
We sell foreign exchange on all the leading capitals of the world.
We make collections, transmit funds, and secure credit information for our customers.
We extend such credit to our customers as their business and resources warrant.
We rent safety deposit boxes in various sizes suited to the needs of our customers.

THE REST OF THE STORY

The Citizens Bank was established in 1894 and in its 32 years it has grown steadily in strength and influence and service to Appleton's banking public. It has 263 stockholders, all but a very small number being Appleton people, so that it is particularly an Appleton institution. It is large enough and strong enough to handle safely the business of Outagamie County, of the National Treasurer of the Catholic Order of Foresters, of the Appleton Post Office Department and other large institutions, and it is small enough to give painstaking attention to the account of the smallest schoolchild depositor.

We want to grow, but, more than that, we want to deliver a service that merits growth.

We want to make money, but, more than that, we want to give full value, and a little more, for the money we do make.

We have all of the modern facilities for a complete banking service and we have all our plans complete and ready for prompt action when our growth necessitates an enlargement of those facilities.

Ten days ago we placed an order for a new set of 225 safety deposit boxes to supply the steady demand for this form of service.

We seek new business on our record, and invite it with confidence in our ability to give the best banking service available.

Approximately 7500 people are now identified with one or more of our various services, and the list is growing. We will be glad to see you, Mr. or Mrs. Reader, added to the list.

DESPONDENT HORTONVILLE BAKER IS SUICIDE

BULLET FIRED BY CARL SAUR ENDS HIS LIFE

Wife Finds Him Dead in Favorite Rocker—Left Note of Explanation

Depressed by business reverses and ill health, Carl Saur, 69, a baker located at Hortonville, took his life about 11 o'clock Friday evening by discharging a revolver bullet into his heart. There were no witnesses of the act, as his wife was absent at the time and his aged mother-in-law, Mrs. Mathilda Schulz, 87, who is somewhat deaf, had retired and did not hear the shot.

Saur's death was found to be a plain case of suicide because the revolver was found beside him and he had written a note to his wife. The note declared that business depression and failing health had led to his decision to end it all. He requested that no funeral services be held at Hortonville but that his body be taken to Clinton, Iowa, his old home, for burial. Mrs. Saur and J. E. Schmidt undertaker, left for that place Saturday morning with the body.

Mrs. Saur had gone to Hortonville opera house to attend a card party and found her husband's lifeless body when she returned about 11 o'clock. It is believed the fatal shot was fired sometime between 10 and 11 o'clock, as the body still was warm.

Saur wrote his farewell note and then seated himself in his favorite rocking chair. He pressed the .32 caliber revolver to his heart, it is thought, and fired a shot which pierced the heart, probably killing him instantly. The gun slipped from the chair to the floor.

The decedent came to Hortonville ten years ago from Clinton, Iowa, and established a bakery business, selling his products to other stores under a wholesale arrangement. He discontinued the business for about a year and then reengaged in it. It was not known that his affairs were worrying him to this extent. He acted normally all day Friday and was in a seemingly cheerful mood when his wife left the home.

Mr. and Mrs. Saur had made their home during their stay in Hortonville with the latter's mother. There are four children, John, Clinton, Iowa; Walter, Maquoketa, Iowa; Miss John Hanecke, Davenport, Iowa; Mrs. Paul Huleit, Pine Bluff, Ark.

BOBBED AND SHINGLED FLOWERS ARE LATEST

London—(AP)—Bobbed and shingled and curled chrysanthemums made their appearance in the National Chrysanthemum Society's show to the great disgust of lovers of unadorned nature.

Some of the chrysanthemums were even kept in curl paper and the big shaggy blossoms as large as the head of a football-player were given permanent waves and otherwise manipulated to fool the judges.

UTAH PINE NUTS ARE REFORESTING PERSIA

Ogden, Utah—(AP)—Twenty-five cents' worth of pine nuts purchased three years ago from a local fruit store are helping reforest Persia.

Three years ago H. Rieben, at Tabriz, wrote F. S. Baker, of the forest service headquarters, asking for tree seeds. He was experimenting to find a specie adapted for Persia.

Baker had no seed at hand, but he went to a neighboring fruit store and bought twenty-five cents' worth of pine nuts, sent them to Rieben and forgot the matter.

Recently, he received another letter from Rieben reporting that the seed had thrived and asking more of the same variety.

Mr. Baker has invested another twenty-five cents and the fruit store product on its way to Persia.

Most Famous Telegraph Key Is In White House

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
NEA Service Writer

Washington—When President Wilson in pajamas at 3 o'clock in the morning sleepily signaled for the opening of the San Diego Exposition, he probably gave the most picturesque touch yet felt by the famous White House gold telegraph key.

But there have been many distinguished fingers upon the virgin nugget Edward W. Smithers, veteran chief telegrapher at the White House who was handed the key as a gift by President Taft, will be proud to tell you the history it has made and still is making.

"You know how people are, when they start some big affair they like to have the president press the button," says Smithers.

"Well, this is the button. The key first was used on the afternoon of June 1, 1909, to open the Alaska-Yukon Pacific Exposition at Seattle. Its base is white Alaska marble, and the metal parts are solid gold, except the actual electrical connections. Studded over it, you see, are a handful of gold nuggets, the original ones discovered by George W. Carmack in the Klondike in 1896.

"It was a great ceremony, that first time President Taft made the connection on the 6000 mile circuit which made the gates fly open and put the world's fair on its way. It was in the East Room, and a great crowd of ambassadors and senators were there.

"The pajama incident in connection with the San Diego exposition was due to their desire to have things open at midnight, New Year's eve, just as the new year of 1915 came in. That was a o'clock here. President Wilson agreed and had himself awakened. He walked down stairs in pajamas and bath robe, yawning and pressed the key, then said 'Happy New Year' to the White House people and went back to bed.

"One of the biggest events for which the key was used was the blowing up of the Gamboa dyke during construction of the Panama Canal. This removed the final obstacle between the waters of the Atlantic and the Pacific. It was on October 10, 1913. But there was no ceremony, just the President and I were in his office, and he reached over and pressed the key."

The president is called upon nearly every week to press the button for some event, says Smithers. The largest affair yet started in this manner by President Coolidge was the opening of the $57,000,000 Skagit Hydro Electric plant at Seattle, Wash. Mrs. Coolidge has used the key twice, to open women's meetings. She is the first president's wife to do this.

Smithers plans to have the key mounted on a pedestal with its history engraved. This will constitute a sort of family lares and penates to be handed along to his son and grandson. The telegrapher himself has had a history more interesting than his cherished gold key. He was a substitute White House telegrapher back in the days of President Cleveland, and has been there regularly since the day after the Maine was blown up in 1898.

FAMOUS YACHTS LIE FORGOTTEN IN TEBO BASIN

Wholesale Abandonment Caused by Cost of Manning and Operating Craft

New York—(AP)—At the foot of Twenty-third-st., Brooklyn, shrouded by protective sheds that conceal the trimness of their decks, rests a forgotten fleet for years, unmoved save by the lapping of the quiet waters of Tebo basin.

Doomed by the march of engineering which has made the motor rather than the steam engine most common in never-craft, this silent armada includes the famous yachts of men who were America's wealthiest in the early days of the Twentieth Century. In number are many craft which as patrol boats saw service in the World war.

Among the more famous of the fleet in the Aphrodite, owned by Pavne Whitner. The Aphrodite was in patrol service in 1918, but for nearly seven years now has laid at dock. The Neaira, owned by Charles A. Gould, has been in the basin for nine years. The Elreba, owned by Henry Darlington, Jr., has been for seven years and the Flying Fox, owned by Dr. John A. Harris has been in the yard for three years. The Hironelle, once the palatial boat of the Prince of Monaco, later the property of a film company, the last two years has stood unmoving against her pier.

Built mainly between 1883 and 1909, these craft, which it appears have outlived their usefulness, would cost an average of nearly $1,000,000 each if built today. Yacht builders say most of them are steam yachts and the rapid advancement of marine engineering has seen the old steam engine replaced by the Diesel and other motor engines.

Port authorities say, however, that the principal causes of the abandonment of so many of the vessels is the cost of manning and operating the sturdy but cumbersome crafts built a generation ago.

DE RESZKES AND HARPISIT COMING HERE NEXT WEEK

Community Artist Number Will Satisfy Demand for Concert Variety

For those who like variety as well as artistic quality in musical programs, the next number of the Community Artist course at 8:20 Thursday evening at Lawrence Memorial chapel will perhaps go beyond all expectations in meeting that demand. The De Reszke Singers, a quartet of young men and Miss Mildred Dilling, harpist, are to appear.

These entertainers are described in glowing superlatives by the press of Europe and America, but the praise comes from the highest musical critics. Those who intend to be present therefore have confidence that they are to hear one of the best programs of the year.

ALL AMERICANS

The DeReszke Singers are Hardesty Johnson and Floyd Townsley, tenors; Erwin Much baritone, and Harold Kellogg, basso. Although they have taken the name of the great Belgian singer, Jean DeReszke who was their coach, they are themselves all Americans. Their first concert was given in France and since that time they have enjoyed continued success.

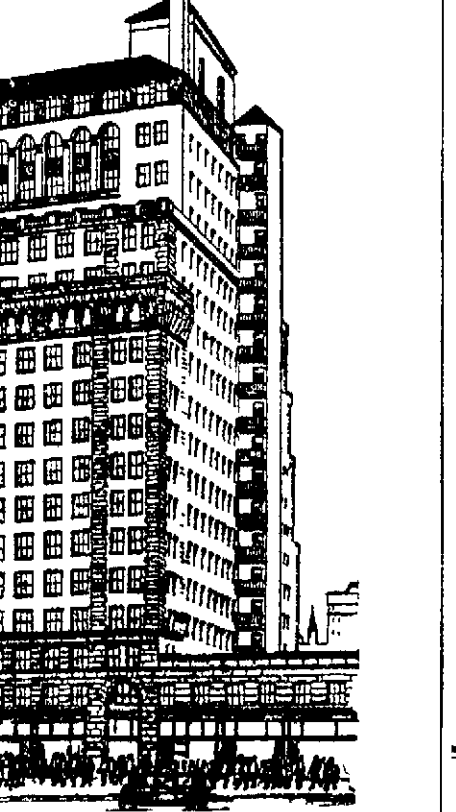

Miss Dilling is known as America's greatest harpist. She earned this title after firmly establishing an international reputation by appearances in the music centers of Europe, the United States and Canada. Her early studies were made in this country, but after a concert in Paris she was accepted as a pupil of Henriette Renie, acknowledged the greatest artist on this instrument.

Audiences throughout the length and breadth of the United States have heard Miss Dilling on her concert tour with DeReszke Singers. She has appeared in recital with Anna Case, Alma Gluck, Frances Alda, Frieda Hempel, Claudio Muzio, Julia Clausen, Edgar Schofield, Fred Patton and others.

The Appleton program will include an excellent choice of music, with the numbers divided about equally between the quartet and Miss Dilling. The singers will present all their selections in English and two of the features will be a group of English folk songs and four Negro spirituals.

Single admission tickets may be obtained all next week at Bellington drug store. They also are on sale at Lawrence Conservatory of Music.

Mr. Madisen will take charge of editing the magazines next Monday.

J. C. PENNEY CO.'S NEW BUILDING IN NEW YORK A MODERN STRUCTURE

A handsome structural testimony to the many-sided efficacy of the chain store system of buying and selling was realized when on January second, the J. C. Penney Company moved its home offices and warehouses under the one roof of its new $3,750,000 building at 330 West 34th Street, New York.

The onward course of this chain has been minutely observed because of the fact that it is organized on a basis that is unique in the annals of mercantile pursuit. In occupying its new, modern,

18-story building in the heart of New York, it reaches an event in its history of signal and lasting importance.

The remarkable growth of the organization particularly during the last five years, has demanded larger, better and more centralized offices and warehouse. This new building fulfills those requirements.

It is fireproof throughout and equipped with the latest facilities for handling the enormous quantities of goods which will be distributed from the building to the 676 stores of the institution.

TRY TO HANG ANOTHER CAR THEFT ON HANSON

The car which Roy Hanson, former Oshkosh resident, was alleged to have stolen in Wausau on about Oct. 1, was to be taken back to the Indiana city Saturday by Mr. Cox, a representative of the company which insured the machine. Mr. Cox arrived in the city early Saturday morning. He intimated that Hanson stole another car in Indianapolis and abandoned it in Chicago. This car has not been found, but it is being traced. Hanson is alleged to have been seen in the machine during his stay in Indianapolis.

Hanson is at Wausau at present to answer to the charge of stealing the first car and from there he probably will be taken to Oshkosh to face trial for burglarizing a filling station. Checks taken from the filling station were found at his home when he was taken into custody Wednesday.

LONG DISTANCE TOURING STARTS EARLY IN 1926

Evidence of a mild winter in all parts of the country this year was seen in Appleton Friday when cars bearing the licenses of two distant states stopped in the city. Practically the extreme of the country were represented by the cars which bore the plates of Connecticut and Montana. Their presence in the city proved conclusively that roads of the entire country are at least partly open for traffic.

Twenty-three women of England are known to earn their living as chimney sweeps.

No. 3. Communications from Geo. Bishop read. (Regarding humidifiers on Court House radiators.)
Marinette, Wis., November 9, 1925.
Members of the County Board, Outagamie County Court House, Appleton, Wisconsin.
Gentlemen:
Last fall I called on you in regard to installing the famous Desjardins Heat Distributor and Humidifier on the radiators in the Court House. At that time you informed me it would be impossible to equip the radiators due to the fact of the expense of decorating the court house at that time.
Last week I called at the court house and looking over the building, I noticed that some of the walls were being discolored. This is caused by the dry heat from the radiators which collect the dust from the air near their walls. Therefore, I am now making a proposal to equip all necessary radiators to protect the walls from being further discolored and of improving your heat circulation for the following rooms:
FIRST FLOOR—County Clerk, 2 radiators; halls, 4 radiators; Municipal Judge, 2 radiators; Court reporter, 1 radiator; County Court, 1 radiator; Municipal court, 2 radiators; County Judge, 1 radiator; County Treasurer, 2 radiators; stairway, 1 radiator.
SECOND FLOOR—Toilet, 1 radiator; jury, 1 radiator; Assessor of Incomes, 4 radiators; reporter, 1 radiator; Judge's private room, 1 radiator; Judge's chamber, 1 radiator; attorney, 2 radiators; County Supt., 2 radiators; County Surveyor, 1 radiator; Committee room, 1 radiator; Highway Room, 2 radiators; stairway, 1 radiator; County room, 5 radiators; Register of Deeds, 1 radiator. This makes the total number of radiators 42. The attachments on these 42 radiators would come to $821.00 on the new design. As a municipal corporation we will allow you 10 per cent off, or $738.90. Marinette, Wisconsin, to be installed by the representative.
And if necessary or desirable to you to have me present at any meeting to discuss any question in detail that may arise in regard to the radiator attachment, you may wire me collect and I will be present at the time you mention.
Following is a list of the court houses, banks and firms that have had the humidifiers installed and are praising them highly:
Marinette courthouse, Rhinelander courthouse, Oconto courthouse, Manitowish courthouse, City Hall at Appleton, City Hall at Merrill, Wis., Appleton State Bank, Ad Assoc. Bldg., at Appleton, Zuelke's Music Store, Appleton, Police Dept., Appleton.
Inclosed you will find pamphlets giving you full particulars on the heat distributor. Hoping you will give this matter your careful consideration. An early reply will be greatly appreciated.
Very truly yours,
J. J. SUPPIS, State Representative.
Same was referred to Building and Grounds committee.
No. 4.5. Communication from the land department, State of Wisconsin, regarding swamp lands.
Same was referred to finance committee.
No. 6. Communication from the state highway engineer regarding tentative highway appropriations.
Mr. John E. Hantschel, County Clerk, Outagamie County, Appleton, Wisconsin.
Dear Sir: As required by Section 84.04 of the Statutes, this Commission has determined, so far as possible, what improvements shall be made in the county under the provisions of Chapter 84 of the Statutes with appropriations for the present fiscal year, and you are hereby notified of such determination.
The funds estimated to be available for work in the county under Section 20.49 are as follows:
1. For the improvement of the County Trunk Highway System: $20,875.00
2. For the improvement of the State Trunk Highway System: $55,945.00
(a). As federal aid construction on S. T. H. No. 54 Seymour-Black Creek Road $40,090.00
(b). For state aid improvements—location to be determined by the county board $43,501.00
3. For the maintenance of the State Trunk Highway System: $55,945.00
The determinations are tentative only and the actual amounts cannot be known until after the end of the fiscal year, June 30, 1926.
Not more than 2 per cent of the amounts available for state aid for the maintenance of the State Trunk Highway System are set aside for Sections 20.49 and 84.03 for supervision by the State Highway Commission. At the end of the fiscal year a final correct statement of the amounts due the county will be rendered.
The Commission in planning federal aid projects sets aside not less than 5 per cent of the amount available as a reserve to meet contingencies and recommends that the county boards follow the same practice in allotting the state aid funds.
Respectfully,
WISCONSIN HIGHWAY COMMISSION.
By: J. T. Donahay, State Highway Engineer.

No. 7. Communication from the Wisconsin County Boards Association regarding membership in the association.
County Board of Supervisors, Outagamie County.
Dear Sirs:
Under cover you are mailing you copies of the proceedings of the last meeting of the Wisconsin County Boards Association held in the city of Kenosha.
The next meeting of the association will be held at La Crosse in 1926. The exact date is left to the president of the association.
We are enclosing with this letter a list of resolutions and suggestions which we ask your County Board of Supervisors to take up at their next meeting and the association requests and urges every County Board to join the association and delegate your chairman and as many more as might be interested to attend the next annual meeting.
The next session of the legislature will follow our meeting and we cannot impress upon you too strongly the desirability and necessity of your county belonging to the association. All counties of the State should join in this work immediately, especially in view of impending changes in the tax and administration laws in the next legislature.

Please notify the secretary as promptly as possible of your County Board action in joining the association, and also its action regarding the different resolutions and suggestions submitted for your consideration by the legislative committee.
Yours very truly,
WISCONSIN COUNTY BOARDS ASSOCIATION.
R. W. Davis, Pres.; R. C. Bretting, Sec'y-Treas.
To County Board of Supervisors, Outagamie County.
Dear Sirs—The following resolutions and suggestions were presented at a meeting of the Wisconsin County Boards Association, held at Madison, October 6-7, 1925. Same are hereby referred to your County Board for approval or further action.
PENAL FINES: Resolved that we, the Wisconsin County Boards Association, urge upon the legislature of the State of Wisconsin an amendment to the present law relating to penal fines, so that an amount of 50 per cent of all penal fines shall be retained by the county for expenses incurred in the prosecution of criminal cases and expense of operating jails and other expenses connected thereto.
INHERITANCE TAXES: Resolved, that this association urge upon the legislature an amendment to the present law regarding inheritance taxes so that the distribution of same shall be made upon the following basis: 50 per cent to the state, 25 per cent to the county, 25 per cent to the local unit in which the deceased resided.
TERMS OF OFFICE OF SUPERVISORS: That whereas the term of office of supervisors from the towns and rural districts are for one year, and whereas this does not conform with the term of office of city supervisors, therefore be it resolved that the laws relating to terms of office should be amended so as to provide for uniform terms of office for all County Board members throughout the State.
MOTHERS PENSION: Whereas what is commonly called the Mothers Pension Law the State pays a pro-rated amount up to $10.00 per month for each child, therefore be it resolved that the proper section be amended so that the State will either pay its full share under the Mothers Pension Law or repeal the section relative to State Aid.
OLD AGE PENSION LAW: Recommendation by the committee that the Old Age Pension Law should be repealed as it does not help conditions in counties that are operating their own poor laws. This law would leave the brunt of the expense up to the local districts.
SUPERVISING TEACHERS: The committee suggests that the office of supervising teacher be repealed as they feel that it is an unnecessary expense and the work of the supervising teacher could be done by the County Superintendent.
COUNTY PHYSICIAN AND CORONER: The committee offers for your consideration the combination of the county offices of county physician and county coroner. They felt that by combining these offices some expense could be saved by the counties.
TAX ON CIGARETTES, ETC.: The committee recommends that tax be placed on cigarettes, cosmetics, and similar luxuries. The funds derived therefrom to be collected by the State and be applied directly for State Aid to rural and high schools.
DISTRIBUTION OF AUTO LICENSE PLATES: The committee suggests that legislation should be enacted for the distribution of automobile license plates and collection of money for same through the County Clerk's office of each County. Plates to be shipped to the County Clerk's office direct from the factory. Expense of County to be reimbursed by the State.
TEACHERS RETIREMENT FUND: The committee submits for your consideration the question of abolishing the Teachers' Retirement Fund.
TAX LEGISLATION: The committee suggests that legislation be enacted for the repeal of the personal property tax. That the rates and distribution of the income tax be changed to meet loss of revenue due and the repeal of said tax. Income tax to be paid at the time of filing of return of each taxpayer under the Federal law. That some provision should be made for a flat minimum income tax for all below a certain fixed exemption.
Please notify R. C. Bretting, Secretary-Treasurer regarding the action of your board on these questions at as early a date as possible.
Yours very truly,
WISCONSIN COUNTY BOARDS ASSOCIATION.
R. C. Bretting, Secretary-Treasurer.

No. 12. Report of the district attorney regarding the Bottensek case read.
To the Honorable County Board of Supervisors of Outagamie County, Wis.
Gentlemen—The District Attorney is in receipt of an opinion from the Attorney General, dated October 6, 1925, regarding the salary of the late John Bottensek, County Judge, who died on the 17th day of September, 1924, and in honor of his estate, 17th day of September, 1924, to support his contention that the legislature had a legal right to set the salary of a county judge and that, therefore the salary paid was legal and proper. This opinion is written by the same official who gave us the first opinion, Vol. XIII, O. A. G. 486, Sept. 3, 1924.
In view of this latest opinion, we recommend that you instruct us to withdraw the claim against the estate of the deceased Judge Bottensek so that this estate may be probated and the matter closed up.
Very respectfully yours,
J. A. LONSDORF, District Attorney.
Hon. John A. Lonsdorf, District Attorney, Appleton, Wisconsin.
Dear Sir: An opinion relating to the compensation of a county judge has been under consideration for some time, and you will find enclosed a copy of an opinion rendered under date of October 6, 1925 by District Attorney Warren B. Foster of Iron County, which is held in the captioned case.
In view of this change of the salary of a county judge during his term of office as that is no part of the system of county government requiring it to be as nearly uniform as practicable.
You will find that this opinion modifies the one rendered to you in September, 1924. A copy has been transmitted to Judge Henneman, and I will appreciate any comment you wish to make in connection with the enclosed opinion.
Very truly yours,
HERMAN L. EKBURN, Attorney General.
Mr. Warren B. Foster, District Attorney, Iron County, Hurley, Wisconsin.
Dear Sir: You say that the salary of the county judge of Iron County was fixed at $800. The salary of the municipal judge was fixed at $2,000. The county judge died in January and the legislature then abolished the office of municipal judge by chapter 21, laws of 1925 and by chapter 22 imposed the duties of that office upon the county judge and by that same act provided that for the coming such additional salary as the county judge should receive $2,000 per annum the same as had been fixed for the municipal judge until the salary of the county judge could be legally fixed by the county board. After the adoption of that act and on March 23, the governor appointed a county judge to fill the unexpired term and you ask if he can draw the $2,000 as so fixed for his salary in addition to the $800 fixed for the salary of the county judge.
By sec. 2 article 7 of the Constitution, the judicial power is vested in a supreme court, circuit courts, courts of probate and justices of the peace and the legislature is there given the power to create municipal courts and inferior courts in the several counties.
By section 10 of the constitution is given power to abolish the office of judge of probate in any county and confer probate powers upon such inferior courts. Under that provision the legislature abolished courts of probate and by provision 2440 the legislature established county courts in each county and by that provision such courts were given the jurisdiction conferred by the Constitution upon the courts of probate and such inferior courts and powers as are or may be conferred by law, so that we now have only the county courts created by that statute in lieu of the probate courts mentioned in the Constitution.
These several provisions seem to make the county judge a county officer at least for the purpose of his election. (The location of his office and the exercise of his duties, but does it make the office a part of the system of county government within the meaning of Sec. 23 article IV of the Constitution which No. 82. Communication of A. G. Koch read. (Enlarging Court House).
To His Honor the Chairman and the Gentlemen of the County Board of Supervisors:

Gentlemen—I again want to call your attention to the congested condition in the Register of Deeds office resulting from the accumulated records. The books in the Register's office are so crowded that it is utterly impossible to keep them in good condition, as the congestion has a tendency to mar, deface and break the binding and covers of said records. The records and plat books are valuable and cannot be replaced after being once destroyed, regardless of what amount of money you may appropriate for such cause. I beg to remain,
Yours very truly,
AL. G. KOCH, Register of Deeds, Outagamie County, Wisconsin.

Same was referred to Building and Grounds Committee.

EXPECT HUGE CROWD AT POST-CRESCENT ICE MEET

CLASSY ENTRY LIST TO BRING OUT HOT RACES

R. C. Miller, Menasha City Recreational Director, to Handle Big Tournament

With over 100 entries representing Appleton, Neenah, Kaukauna, Menasha and Combined Locks, ready for the start of the Fourth Annual Post-Crescent Skating tournament, prospects also are bright for one of the largest crowds ever at an ice meet in this vicinity. In 1924 a crowd of 2,000 lined the walls of Jones park where the meet is being held and last year about 3,000 were present. This year, however, with the Electric and Oak cities each represented on the ice with large delegations, large groups are expected to make the trip from these cities to Appleton to help cheer their fellow townsmen to an Inter-city title. This is expected to increase the attendance with an increased local attendance over last year to more than 1,000 more persons. All of the skaters are in fine condition and some real speed and endurance marks which will set several new records, are looked for.

Races will start promptly at 1:30 without a delay and skaters are requested to be on hand early ready to go. The schedule of the events, entries in each and their numbers appear on the sport sheet and the article should be clipped and brought to the rink by prospective spectators as a score sheet for the meet. Skaters are requested to arrive at the rink with their numbers already on their backs if they are secured on Saturday. Those unable to get the numbers Saturday at the Post-Crescent office can get them at the rink by arriving early and should have them on by the time their first event starts. Numbers should be fastened securely to four safety pins, one in each corner, to prevent their "flying up" from the bottom. A new stunt will be tried this year when all contestants will be required to wear their numbers on their city style. As in the large races of the country they should be fastened on the back just above the hips instead of just below the shoulders. This gives the spectators a better chance to follow the races from start to finish more closely. Whereas the numbers failed to show when the skater is in a bent-over racing position in his efforts to make good when they were fastened in the old position, they can be read easily from the sidelines at all stages of the race in the new position whether the skater is bending over or upright. Formerly the only time they could be seen from the hillside and even by many people right on the ice was in the final stretch sprint.

The meet will be governed entirely by rules of the Western skating association and all infractions of these rules will mean disqualification in the particular race in which it occurs. Three important rules which mean disqualification are: 1. Disobeying the referee, 2. cutting off corners, 3. pushing or cutting off corners and no cutting in front of another skater. No contestant is allowed to push or elbow another. On the turns he must stay inside the marked lanes and not cut the distance by shooting inside of the inner flag. A skater must be a sufficient distance ahead of another so that such a movement will not bother the rear man in order to cut cross ahead of him. The distance is at least six feet. All skaters must come down the home stretch in a straight line or in their own lane just as they enter the stretch from the final turn. Officials of the meet will have special instructions to enforce this rule strictly.

Another important rule as taken from the rule book reads: "The contestant who gets the inside place, or pole, has the right of way and can only be passed on the right hand. But should he stay away from the pole any contestant is privileged to pass him on the left hand providing there is ample room and the party passing in no way interferes with the contestant or contestants holding the pole position."

Competent officials have been chosen for all of the major positions and the races will be run off as quickly as possible. Officials of the meet are: Referee and Starter—R. C. Miller, recreational director, Menasha. Timekeeper—W. T. Sullivan, Kaukauna high school. John T. McAuliffe, Appleton high school; Bernard Riehe, Wilson high school. Clerk of Course—J. R. Riedl; assistant David Rensler; Scorer—Dan Monroey. Announcer—Charles Bender; Judges—Erik Modin, Paul Cary and Louis Wagner. Patrol Judges—John Bergman, Lester Hartzell, Carl Wenzlaff and Al Wenzlaff.

BADGERS, GOPHERS TIE IN HOCKEY GAME

Madison—(P)—The Wisconsin and Minnesota Hockey teams played an extra 10 minutes to 0 to 0 tie here Friday night. Then play again Saturday afternoon.

The Gophers were speedier than the Badgers, but were unable to get through the latter's defense. Gross, McCarter and Morehead, were out standing on the Wisconsin side, while Olson, Flaaten and Kuhlman were the visitor's stars.

CORNELL TREATS BELOIT TO DRUBBING, 30-12

Beloit—Cornell ran rough shod over Beloit here Friday night to win a Midwest conference game by a 30 to 12 score. The shooting of the locals was exceptionally ragged and they missed numerous easy shots at the hoop. Dean and Raymond looked the best for the winners while Laabs, turned in a sensational exhibition of defensive and offensive play for Beloit. The score at the half was Cornell 9, Beloit 4.

APPLETON VOLLEYBALL TEAM TRIMS KIMBERLY

Appleton volleyball team, composed of J. Murphy, P. Schenz, F. C. Reuter, J. P. Barford, C. O. Goch, and Al Bradford, defeated the crack Kimberly Clark Co. squad in two games Wednesday noon at Kimberly. The scores were 16-14 and 15-9.

LAWRENCE FIVE RALLIES TO WHIP MONMOUTH, 25-13

Denneymen Show Offensive Power in Last Seven Minutes of Play

Monmouth, Ill. — Lawrence college basketball team, Appleton, Wis., defeated Monmouth college's crack squad 25 to 13 in a thrilling Midwest conference game here Friday evening. A desperate rally by the visitors in the last quarter spelled defeat for the local team.

From the time of the starting whistle until the final quarter, the score progressed slowly, with Lawrence usually in a one or two point lead. The score at the close of the first half was 8 to 6, with Lawrence leading.

With only seven minutes to play, Coach Denney's men, who were ahead at that time 13 to 8, opened up with a series of long and short passes to give them 12 more points, almost as many as they had made during the rest of the game. Monmouth added only four more points to its total.

Ashtman was the leading scorer for the Blue players, while Wallace performed in his usual style for Monmouth.

The Appleton squad left for Galesburg Saturday where they will meet Knox college in another Midwest tilt in the evening.

Scoring three field goals and a free throw in the final quarter, Little Chute high school defeated Hilbert high school in a close game at Little Chute Friday evening, 14-6 and evened the status between the two schools. It was the fifth victory out of six starts for the Chuters, Hilbert having won the only game from them at a time when four regulars were out of the lineup.

Until the last quarter not more than two points separated the teams at any time. The first half ended five to four for Little Chute, while the third quarter closed with the same team leading, 7 to 6.

A stalling game, which opened up their opponent's defense, gave the winners a number of open shots in the last few minutes of play, resulting in three goals from scrimmage and a free throw. Hilbert was unable to score during the quarter.

FRIDAY GAMES
APPLETON 23, SHEBOYGAN 15.
Fond du Lac 30, E. Green Bay 12.
Manitowoc 24, Oshkosh 6.

A short, chubby youth, Kneip by name, ran riot on the Amory basketball floor Friday evening, scored 15 points and was chiefly responsible for Appleton high school's decisive victory over Sheboygan high, 23 to 15, in the Orange's second valley conference game this year. The win keeps Appleton's state clean, and establishes Coach MacAuliffe's youngsters as an efficient aggregation, one which must be seriously reckoned with in consideration of the championship race.

In amassing the majority of his team's score, Kneip dropped in seven field goals and two free throws. Thirteen of his points were made in the first half and were, by the way, the only markers garnered by Appleton in scoring column in the latter part of this period.

Strutz and Ashman broke into the scoring column in the latter part of the battle, the former getting two baskets and the latter one, in addition to a free throw.

Lindsay was the scoring ace for the visitors, counting seven points on two field goals and three from the foul line. Tesawide added four points and Toebak and Kauter one each.

Although Kneip did most of the scoring, dropping the ball through the net from all angles and distances, the play of his teammates cannot be overlooked. So effective was their defensive work that Coach Iverson's proteges scored only five times from play, and several of these counts were long shots. Such guarding is of course an asset to any team and was responsible to a great extent for Appleton's second win.

A times the offensive attack of the Orange was almost as formidable, with all five men racing the ball down close to their basket with a series of short passes. Their team work was disrupted on numerous occasions however, but not nearly as often as was the case with the Sheboygians. Inaccuracy at caging fingers still is an outstanding fault, many close tries rolling outside the rim, but a decided improvement over a week ago was apparent.

Appleton high outscored Sheboygan only 13 to 10 in the first half, and the sudden spurt by Coach MacAuliffe's team after the game was resumed was entirely unexpected. Ashtman started the scoring in the final period with a gut shot, which was followed by three field goals by Strutz, Ashman, and Kneip, respectively, before Sheboygan was able to add anything to its early score.

The visitors then added a single point on Lindsay's free throw and two more with a field marker by Testawide, but the Orange-cagers, sensing victory, retaliated with one point by Kneip and two by Strutz, which ended the scoring for Appleton. Toebak sank a long shot for his team shortly before the last whistle blew.

Appleton was the first to score at the start of the game when Kneip dropped in his first counter of the evening from scrimmage in the first minute of play. Four baskets from the foul line were added in rapid succession by Sheboygan, topped off with a field goal, and things began to look somewhat dreary for the Orange supporters.

Kneip next ignited the ring again for two more points, only to be followed by another Sheboygan goal, but it was at this moment that the aspect of the fray suddenly changed. Five baskets from as many different positions, two from near the center of the floor put joy into the heart of Coach MacAuliffe and many hundred spectators, and gave Appleton a comfortable lead for the first time of the game. Sheboygan closed the gap between the two scores before the close of the half however, with two more ringers, but was soon outdistanced again in the final two quarters.

Room for more practice, much of it, is still an apparent need for Coach MacAuliffe's team, especially in scoring, but if the Orange machine continues to improve as it has the past week, we predict a bright and rosy season as a reward.

Manitowoc kept pace with the local high school by swamping Oshkosh 24 to 6, on the former's floor Friday evening. The Lake Michigan city gives evidence of abundant strength and is sure to contest Appleton's bid for top honors.

Fond du Lac jumped into the 500 class by defeating E. Green Bay on the Fondy floor, 30 to 12. W. Green Bay took a non-conference tilt from Oconto, 27 to 5.

Appleton Vocational school team swamped the high school second team, 17 to 7, in the preliminary game. The high school representatives did not stage a single field goal until in the last few minutes of play. As in all their games, the Vocational team was strong on defense, smothering their opponents before a fair shot at the hoop could be secured.

Bowers, center for the winners scored three field goals and two free throws, and Munster caged an equal number of goals from scrimmage. Scuitly did most of the scoring for the losers with three baskets. McCanna made the free throw.

The lineup: Vocational school—Koespel, Munster, forwards; Bowers, center; Verbiten, Eigert, guards.

High school seconds—Murphy, Crowe, forwards; Schultz, center; McCanna, Packard, guards.

GRANT ROHLOFF PARDON; DENY ONE TO KABAT

Youth Convicted of Embezzlement Returns Home from Green Bay

Arnold C. Rohloff, Appleton youth serving a sentence of one and a half years at the state reformatory at Green Bay for embezzlement, has been granted a pardon by Gov. John J. Blaine and Wenzel E. Kabat, convicted here more than ten years ago for murder, was denied executive clemency.

Rohloff was convicted here several months ago after he had been accused of embezzlement of funds while employed with Northwestern Petroleum Co. Pardon papers were received here Friday from the governor's office by Attorney C. E. Behnke, who had negotiated the release, and Mr. Behnke went to the reformatory at once to gain the prisoner his freedom. Rohloff returned here Friday afternoon. An attempt had been made to gain his pardon before Christmas, but the governor's decision was not made until Thursday.

FILE PROTESTS

Numerous Outagamie-co persons filed protests with Gov. Blaine when hearings were held on the pardon applications of Wenzel E. Kabat, and it is believed this had something to do with the decision. Kabat mur-

HEAR CLAIMS AGAINST ESTATE OF ANTON GRAEF

Hearing of preferred claims in the estate of Anton Graef is one of four matters listed on the calendar of the special term of county court on Tuesday, Jan. 19. Other estates listed are those of Maria Seiberlich, hearing on petition to determine descent of land, Edwin C. Collins, hearing on final account; and Bardenna Giesse, hearing on claims.

The murderer made his escape from the state penitentiary at Waupun while serving his term but was recaptured. Those who objected to his pardon regarded him as too desperate a character to be allowed freedom in the community, especially because he is understood to have threatened some of his accusers.

One Shawano-co man, Byron Williams, was given a commutation of sentence by Gov. Blaine. He was convicted last June for stealing an automobile and sentenced for five years. This punishment was considered excessive by the governor and he commuted the sentence to three years.

MILLIONS EXPENDED IN LAST 6 YEARS TO MAKE THIS COUNTRY DRY

BY GEORGE BARRETT
NEA Service Writer

Washington — "Industrial alcohol," is the unhesitating answer of James E. Jones, federal director of prohibition, to the question of what source of bootleg liquor his men are chiefly concerned with today on the sixth birthday of the Volstead act.

In the six years since the Volstead law went into effect Jan. 18, 1920, the lines of the dry army have coped with bootleggers on the mountain tops and in the attics and cellars, with forgers of whisky permits, with shippers and salesmen, with the roving hosts that prowled along the Canadian border and the busy boats that piled along the coasts.

Jones gives some cold figures on the new threat of industrial alcohol. During the year ending June, 1920, there were produced 28,000,000 gallons of it. In the six years of prohibition this rate has tripled, he said, with $1,000,000 gallons the output for last year. Ever since prohibition arrived, Jan. 16, 1920, more than 200,000,000 gallons of denatured alcohol has been produced.

Engraved permits fooled the forgers in the early days of prohibition, Jones said. Then the bootleg army began withdrawing whisky for export, to be shipped back. That was blocked, and the next scheme was to withdraw it on pretext of making patent medicines, hair tonics and the like.

Just as the arm of dry enforcement has found a way to beat these evils so it has a way to halt the orgy of industrial alcohol, Jones said. The latest move was to withdraw certain formulas for the manufacture of rubbing and bathing alcohol and to require formulas which are much harder to re-distill.

The cost of the six years' war has been $39,752,721, minus taxes and fines that amounted to $27,477,411, but plus the cost of a greatly enlarged coast guard and cost of prosecutions. The budget of the prohibition army, which now numbers 3,241, this year is $10,000,000.

During the six years of the dry war $50,000,000 of property was seized and mostly destroyed. This included more than 4,000,000 gallons of malt liquors, 15,000 automobiles and 600 boats.

More than 60,000 arrests were made during each of the last three years by federal men, and 284,790 during the last six.

Withdrawals from bonded warehouses continue quite large. In five years the amount in storage was cut down from about 50,000,000 gallons to 27,000,000. And the number of physicians issuing liquor prescriptions has gone up to about $5,000 out of a total of 150,000 members of the profession.

Mrs. C. C. Nielsen and daughter, Jean of Milwaukee are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Heins, 534 N. Division-st.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Tuttle left Saturday for California where they will spend the winter.
